

Vilma Santos and Luis Manzano on their most outstanding role yet with Quaker Oats

In the case of Vilma Santos and Luis Manzano, good looks, talent, and a healthy lifestyle seem to run in the family. Star for All Seasons Vilma Santos and TV Host Luis Manzano are taking on their most “outstanding” roles yet as the newest endorsers of Quaker Oats. Known for their close and playful bond, the two are ecstatic to be endorsing a brand they truly believe in together.

“Definitely, we’re very very happy to be part of the Quaker Oats family. Karangalan po namin yun. Plus the fact na kasama po kami sa advocacy para magkaroon ng healthy living,” Vilma shared. Like his mom, Luis was ecstatic to be joining the brand. “Quaker is a brand that I’ve been using for the longest time. Sobrang fan ako ng Quaker. Kaya naman nung sinabi sa akin na “Luis, gusto ka naming maging officially maging part ng Quaker, nakakatuwa talaga,” he expressed.

Quaker Oats’ Quick Cook Oatmeal and Instant Oatmeal are products the mother-and-son tandem swear by. Both made with 100% whole grain oats packed with fiber, protein, and beta-glucan, Quaker Oats’ Quick Cook Oatmeal or Instant Oatmeal is the perfect way to jumpstart your morning. All you need is to add in hot water and the toppings of your choice to spice up the most important meal of the day. Beyond it being a delicious breakfast, oatmeal boasts of multiple health benefits such as the lowering of bad cholesterol, aiding in digestion, and powering up one’s day.

As a known fitness buff, Luis emphasized the importance of prioritizing one’s health, which is why Quaker Oats is the perfect fit for him. “Yung Quaker Oats po kasi talaga is for healthy living, especially now while you mature. Importante po yung nakakacontrol ng cholesterol, yung fiber ng oatmeal, malaki ang naitutulong sa katawan.”

Vilma recounted that she has been eating Quaker Oats for breakfast since she was young, which is why she has passed this habit on to her children as well. “Sa totoo lang po, lahat kaming magkakapatid when we were young, talagang ang breakfast namin bago magpunta ng school ay oatmeal at talagang Quaker Oat talaga. Yung classic oatmeal noong araw? I’m sure alam niyo yun, yung milk and sugar pa lang. Pero yung oatmeal ngayon modernized na di ba? Pwede mong gawin champorado, o lagyan ng ibant ibang fruits para interesting. Malaking parte ng buhay ko ang Quaker,” she explained. Meanwhile, Luis said that the overnight oats is his go-to snack. “Yun talaga ang ginawa ko, baon-baon ko yan. Yung ginagawa ko, of course, oatmeal tapos may konting soymilk, tapos nilalagyan ko ng mga blueberries, tapos may konting almonds. Perfect na baon na yan.” It sounds perfect, indeed!

Whichever way you prefer to enjoy your oatmeal, take your cue from Quaker Oats’ newest endorsers Ate V and Luis Manzano and pass on healthy eating habits to your family. Your mornings will never be the same.
