

TWISTED SISTERS

Outrageous and outstanding icons of pop, grunge and rock from every era: steal their eccentric makeup looks

PHOTOGRAPHY STEVE KOH/IMAGE ROM ART DIRECTION KAREN HOO STYLING SHANTILA LEE

TOS: LADY GAGA

Costume extravaganzas galore and mind-blowing makeup manifestations to match, Lady Gaga is our self-invented, manufactured, accidental, totally-on-purpose lady of pop. Evoke her numero uno makeup staple: thick, chunky black eyeliner and mega false eyelashes.

BUSTIER, BRACELET AND NECKLACE MICHAEL KORS

90S: COURTNEY LOVE

Anguished, brazen and frankly notorious for her 'unpretty' grunge, controversial doesn't even begin to describe Courtney Love. Replicate her perennial hot mess appeal with Love's signature look: bed-head shaggy platinum blonde hair and red-hot, matte lipstick.

DRESS, CUFF AND CHOKER CHANEL

80S: CYNDI LAUPER

A flaming red mop of frizz, psychedelic eyeshadow and sans fingers leather gloves are the explosion of Cyndi Lauper's true colours epitomised. The 80s pop queen with a bubbly, infectious Betty Boop-esque voice was notorious for wacky-punk fashion, makeup and hair—you name it, she's done it.

DRESS, VERSACE; GLOVES CHANEL

DRESS AND EARRINGS VERSACE

00S: PINK

The one unmistakable thing about Pink? Her insouciant, entirely unique blasé cool ignited by her platinum pixie crop. Try the rockstar's wicked Cover Girl campaign look: hot fuchsia lips, vivid blue eyeshadow, lashings of mascara and Versace's spiky-shouldered dress to set it all off.

MODEL DASHA/ BASE MODELS
MAKE UP GERALDINE LOY
HAIR LOIS LEE
TEXT SHANTILA LEE