SERVICE COMMITMENT

Committed to unparalleled customer service, OCP provides the support and resources you need to accomplish your ministry.

A worship program to fit the unique needs of your parish

The repertoire you need.

Draw your community more deeply into worship and keep them coming back with music that speaks to the heart of their faith. From traditional chant and hymnody to beloved favorites like “Here I Am, Lord” and contemporary music like “Go Make a Difference,” only OCP missals deliver a variety of fresh music, each and every year.

The flexibility you want.

Your community is constantly evolving. Your parish may grow, musical tastes may shift, you may even add a Mass in another language. Whenever and however your needs change, you're not locked in. Annual or seasonal; with readings or without; in Spanish, English or both—a wide variety of options plus easy financing means OCP missal programs are as flexible as you need them to be.

The confidence you seek.

Whether it's changes to the Lamb of God, an addition of St. Joseph to the eucharistic prayer or a newly-discovered song that inspires full participation, with an annually delivered missal, you'll always have the latest liturgically approved texts and music to engage your assembly.

The support you appreciate.

From full keyboard and guitar accompaniments to complete psalm settings, prayer resources and liturgy planning tools, each missal subscription comes with hundreds of dollars in free support materials—every year. They're all designed to help you prepare a celebration that inspires your assembly from the moment they enter to beyond the Concluding Rites.

Sustainability in words and practice.

Our earth is a gift, and we are charged with its care. That's why everything about an OCP missal is 100% recyclable, from the boxes we use to ship your resources, to the packaging and even the books themselves. It's all a demonstration of our commitment to ethical stewardship of our shared environment.

The partner you expect.

Not-for-profit, with a mission to spread the Gospel to all, OCP gives more than $1.1 million dollars to the Catholic Church every year. When you subscribe to an OCP missal you become our partner, not just in ministry, but also in mission.

Our community of faith is evolving and becoming more diverse

Having a missal program that adapts to your changing needs, celebrates faith with an unmatched musical repertoire and keeps you confident—knowing you always have the latest approved texts and music in hand—is invaluable.

See why thousands of parishes, just like yours,
have chosen to become our partners in ministry.

MASS SETTINGS

“Wonderful Mass setting. I’ve used it and implemented it at three different parishes. People love how it moves. I believe it has become the new ‘standard’ Mass setting in many churches!”

--Joseph K., Director of Music, St. Peter’s Catholic Church, Warren, OH

Dan Schutte Mass of Christ the Savior EXPANDED EDITION

ocp.org/MassChristSavior

NEW! Expanded accompaniments and Presider Edition now available!

Inspire your parish with the new expanded edition of the bestselling mass from Dan Schutte, offering a masterful wedding of music and text. Featuring a new song for the Sprinkling Rite, a setting of Eucharistic Prayer II, choral responses for all the Dialogues and beautiful melodies that will stand the test of time, Mass of Christ the Savior invites us to enter more deeply into the mystery of Christ each time we celebrate Mass. The arrangement lends itself to a single singer and guitar or SAB choir, organ and added instruments.

NEW expanded edition resources!

- The new song “Living Streams” invites robust assembly singing during the Sprinkling Rite
- Two options for the Glory to God, the original format with refrain and a through-composed format
- The elegant Universal Prayer offers an accessible way to sing the Prayer of the Faithful each Sunday or for special celebrations
- A setting of Eucharistic Prayer II gives presiders a melodic chant setting for the summit of the liturgy
- Musical settings for each Dialogue, from the Introductory Dialogue to the Final Blessing and Dismissal
- Accompaniments for guitar, keyboard and solo instrument to enrich your liturgical celebrations
- New Presider Edition

Looking for Mass settings to celebrate the liturgy?

Whether you need additional Mass settings or are still searching for the right fit, we are excited to highlight nine of our most popular settings—containing approved texts for the Lamb of God—to inspire your assembly and your musicians.

Curtis Stephan

NEW Mass of Renewal

Go to new depths of understanding of what we celebrate at Mass. Featuring a triumphant, ascending main theme and accompaniments to fit both traditional ensembles and modern worship style groups, this versatile new setting will help you breathe new life into your daily, weekend and youth liturgies throughout the year.

ocp.org/MassOfRenewal

Owen Alstott

REVISED Heritage Mass

What began as sketches on the first piece of paper within reach became one of OCP's first and most enduring music publications: Heritage Mass. Owen has preserved the majority of the original melodies, so you can share this beloved setting with ease.

ocp.org/HeritageMass

Ken Canedo & Bob Hurd

REVISED Mass of Glory

Proclaim the new texts with joy, thanks to the contemporary and prayerful themes of this popular Mass. You will also find revised musical elements that thoughtfully serve the new Order of Mass, helping you provide a smooth transition for your parish.

ocp.org/MassOfGlory

Randall DeBruyn

NEW Mass of the Resurrection

Whether you lead with a cantor or a choir, Mass of the Resurrection will help you lift voices to sing of our salvation. Draw your parishioners deeper into the liturgy with simple, strong melodies—founded on the familiar DUKE STREET hymn tune—that illuminate the new Order of Mass texts.

ocp.org/MassOfTheResurrection

“Mass of the Resurrection is very sing-able and versatile... and, when you add in all the instrumentation, is quite grand.
It will serve the Diocese well.”

—Denise F., Director of Faith Formation, Diocese of Marquette, MI
(Mass of the Resurrection by Randall DeBruyn)

“I play at least 5 masses a week so I can get weary of doing the same [Mass setting]...whether it’s traditional, bilingual or contemporary, I always find music that fills my church’s emotional and spiritual needs.”

—Joan N., Music Director
St. Gabriel the Archangel Parish, Carneys Point, NJ

Christopher Walker

NEW Mass of St. Paul the Apostle

The sung parts of the Mass are truly the song of the assembly. Express the new texts with enthusiasm through spirited rhythms and comfortable melodies that your parishioners will look forward to singing week after week.

ocp.org/StPaulTheApostle

Kevin Keil

NEW Mass of St. Frances Cabrini

Featuring memorable tunes, this simple and direct hymn-like setting will instantly grab your assembly’s interest. Composed to meet the needs of the average parish, the recurring melodic themes will help you sing the new translation with your congregation.

ocp.org/StFrancesCabrini

Christopher Walker

REVISED Celtic Mass

From the smallest parish to the grandest cathedral, Celtic Mass has nourished worship communities for years. Striking a delicate balance between new and old, Christopher has provided you with an effective resource to celebrate the new Roman Missal with your community.

ocp.org/CelticMass

Ricky Manalo, CSP

NEW Mass of Spirit and Grace

Inspired by his eucharistic hymn “Spirit and Grace”, this approachable setting can be adapted to fit a number of different ensembles. Unite your congregation in song with melodies written to serve the voice of the assembly.

ocp.org/SpiritAndGrace

Bob Hurd

REVISED Misa del Pueblo Inmigrante

The Eucharist is about unity. Offering all-English, all-Spanish and fully bilingual options, the flowing melodies and contagious rhythms of this setting will bring the Word of God to the lips and hearts of your community throughout the year—from Easter Vigil to the feast of Our Lady of Guadalupe.

LECTIONARY READINGS

The word of God proclaimed in worship makes Christ present through the power of the Holy Spirit. In the liturgy of the Church the Sacred Scriptures find their true home, for here both creation and redemption are crowned in mystery. God's word and the liturgy quench the thirst of all who seek the way, the truth and the life. We pray that the word of God be etched indelibly in our heart and on our lips that we may faithfully conform to it and boldly proclaim its love to music for the Responsorial Psalm may be found in #15-125; music Acclamation is also found in #177, 178, 187, 188, 192, 198, 207, 212, 245, 246, 259-266.)

858 FIRST SUNDAY OF ADVENT — A

FIRST READING

This is what Isaiah, son of Amoz, saw concerning Judah and Jerusalem. In days to come, the mountain of the Lord's house shall be established as the highest mountain and raised above the hills. All nations shall stream toward it; many peoples shall come and say: "Come, let us climb the Lord's mountain, to the house of the God of Jacob, that he may instruct us in his ways, and we may walk in his paths." For from Zion shall go forth instruction,	and the word of the Lord shall go from Jerusalem, and impose term on many peoples; they shall enter into plowshare and their spades; one nation shall rise against another, nor shall they till the field of Jacob, for they shall let us walk in the paths of the Lord's house.

“The Spirit & Song hymnal has been an invaluable and joy-filled tool for me in my music ministry. From use at Mass to religious education classes, weddings, funerals, and confirmation retreats, the contemporary songs and rhythms have added another level to our worship. I especially love that the new arrangements to old classics help me to bridge ‘old to new.’ Finally, the new digital edition is the next great step for this resource.”

Do you want to unite your Spanish-speaking community in song and prayer?

FLOR Y CANTO TERCERA EDICIÓN

More than 25 million of all U.S. Catholics are Hispanic. Are you looking for a way to welcome the Church's fastest-growing community into your parish?

Enjoy a balanced collection of over 740 songs—the best from the previous two editions, plus 200 new titles, including more than 100 bilingual selections—that speaks to the whole family and supports living faith, both within and beyond the liturgy.

- Support worship all year: more titles for entrance and Communion, more offertory songs and more selections for Holy Week, Marian celebrations and feast days important to the Latino community
- Enrich ritual moments: increased selection of songs for sacraments, funerals, quinceañeras and RCIA
- Choose from 13 Mass settings: beloved settings, such as Misa San José, Misa Puertorriqueña and Misa del Pueblo Inmigrante—plus Eucharistic Acclamations from the popular new Misa Santa Cecilia
- Worship with confidence: all service music was guided by Church documents and expanded to include more Latin selections for the liturgy, such as Misa Gregoriana (Chant Mass)

Celebrate cultural and musical traditions

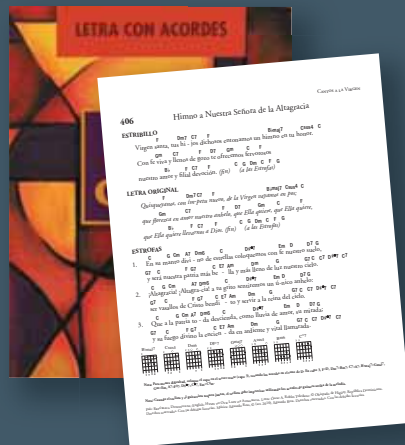

Featuring songs in their original language, Flor y Canto, tercera edición retains the poetic flow and musical traditions that are often lost in literal translations. Each year, we gather to celebrate a special time in our Church. Faith is renewed. Communities are brought closer together.

From the procession of Palm Sunday to the glory of Easter morning, we are pleased to offer the following collections to help you enrich worship throughout this holy season.

LENT, TRIDUUM & EASTER

Jaime Cortez
Qué Alegría/I Rejoiced
 Bilingual Music
 for the Easter Season

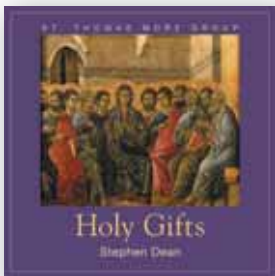

From samba and mariachi to slow bolero and chant, there is something for every church musician in this bilingual collection. Written for a multicultural celebration of Lent, Holy Week and Easter, many of the 13 songs can be sung entirely in English or Spanish, including “El Cáliz Que Bendecimos/ Our Blessing Cup” and “Qué Alegría/I Rejoiced.”

Columba Kelly, OSB
The Passion of Our Lord Jesus Christ According to John

One of the world's most respected Gregorian chant experts, Benedictine Father Kelly has set the current Lectionary text for St. John's Passion to the traditional, ancient tone for this proclamation. Perfected through many years of use at St. Meinrad Archabbey, this solemn, accessible setting for Good Friday also makes excellent devotional listening, especially during Lent.

Christopher Walker
The Passion of Our Lord Jesus Christ According to John

This setting of the Passion is powerful, tender and haunting. The inspiration for it, the composer explains, came from his desire to give added meaning and power to the Passion reading on Good Friday. Reverent and emotionally immediate, the music is a very appropriate setting for St. John's telling of the story.

Cantemus Domino
A Treasury of Gregorian Chant,
Vol. III

Some of the Gregorian melodies for Holy Week date back as early as fourth-century Jerusalem. As we celebrate the passion, death and resurrection of Jesus, Cantemus Domino offers 25 settings to match the distinctive mood of each day.

From easy-to-learn pieces for groups new to plainsong to more complex selections for ensembles with years of experience... this beautiful collection is an excellent introduction to the chanted liturgy for the most solemn and iconic time of the liturgical year.

Janèt Sullivan Whitaker
These Forty Days
Music for Lent, Passiontide and Ordinary Time

Preparing for Easter—and heaven—our hearts should sing for joy, knowing that Lenten prayers and practices only speed us along. With These Forty Days, Janèt Sullivan Whitaker gives the Church a refreshingly joyful, major-key approach to this holy season.

The 14 new songs include five psalms settings with verbatim Lectionary texts, a Lenten Gospel acclamation and two songs with children's choir accompaniment. Though intended primarily for Lent and Holy Week, many titles are perfectly suited for celebrations throughout Ordinary Time, weddings, funerals and more.

No Greater Love/
No Hay Amor Más Grande
Bilingual Songs for the Easter
Triduum/ Cantos Bilingües
para el Triduo Pascual

Every Easter Triduum, parishes that usually offer separate Masses in English and Spanish gather as one for three grand, bilingual liturgies. Now, thanks to this groundbreaking resource, they have 19 bilingual songs for these holy days.

Each song can be sung bilingually, in Spanish or in English. Styles range from chant to contemporary to Latin American. Highlights include Estela García-López's beautiful setting of "Pange Lingua Gloriosi" and Dolores Martínez's setting of the ten Good Friday intercessions.

Pange Lingua Gloriosi
Choral Music for Holy Week

This 17-song collection is filled with the artistry of some of today's leading classical choral musicians. From chant to polyphonic choral music, Pange Lingua Gloriosi invites the choir and assembly to take part in bringing voice and body to the Paschal Mystery.

A wonderful setting of the introit for Palm Sunday, Brian Luckner's "Hosanna to the Son of David" is one of a number of pieces intended for specific ritual moments. Others draw from readings or liturgical action, such as Mary Van Houten's "Are You Not Aware." There are also reflections on Christ's sacrifice, which are more versatile in use, including Jane Hawes' "The Seven Last Words of Christ."

Perfect for multiple occasions

“Out of Darkness” by Christopher Walker

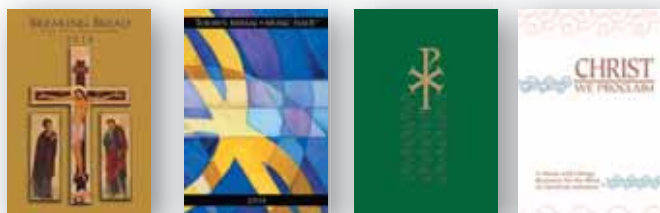

With limited time to teach your choir new music, having a song in your repertoire that can be used for multiple occasions is a music director’s best friend. With verses for Ordinations, Easter and Christ Mass, as well as a strong call to service and mission for any Sunday, “Out of Darkness” provides a song for you to use over and over. With optional brass quartet parts, it’s a great option for use during the Easter season.

Powerful hymn for the Easter season

“Festival Canticle: Worthy Is Christ” by Richard W. Hillert and John W. Arthur

Originally composed as an alternative “Hymn of Praise,” this powerful hymn first appeared in the Lutheran Book of Worship and Lutheran Worship hymnals and has since found its way into more than twenty denominational hymnals and worship programs. Frequently used throughout the Easter season, this festival edition is also most appropriate for the solemnity of Our Lord Jesus Christ, King of the Universe, celebrated on the last Sunday in Ordinary Time. Now with newly-published choral parts!

Fashion your heart for Christ

“Make Your Home In Me” by Ben Walther

Jesus said that foxes have dens and birds have nests, but that he has no place to lay his head. Contemplating the homelessness of Christ, Ben Walther wrote a tender and moving song about fashioning the human heart into the only suitable dwelling for the Son of Man. Rich with both justice and Eucharistic overtones, “Make Your Home In Me” is a great addition to any parish’s repertoire.

Joyfully shout victory at Easter

“Alleluia! Love Is Alive” by Steve Angrisano, Jesse Manibusan and Sarah Hart

According to liturgical documents, the paschal exuberance with which we sing “Alleluia!” should be a joyful shout. This cry of victory over death and sin has been brought to jubilant expression by three of today’s best contemporary songwriters: Sarah Hart, Jesse Manibusan and Steve Angrisano. “Alleluia! Love Is Alive” is an Easter song that will lift the roof as your congregation lifts their hearts and voices.

Hymn version of contemporary classic

“Love Has Come” by Matt Maher

This new arrangement of “Love Has Come” is in the style of a traditional four-part hymn, making the rich musical and textual language of this contemporary classic accessible to a broader spectrum of musical groups. While the piece is often used during the Christmas season, the text is a marvelous microcosm of salvation history from creation through the coming of the New Jerusalem, making it appropriate for many times throughout the church year.

Communion Antiphons for SATB Choir

Volume 1: Seasons, Solemnities and Feasts

Volume 2: Sundays in Ordinary Time

Engage your choir in performing these beautiful settings of the Roman Missal text with this two-volume set of choral arrangements, including all Communion antiphons in a variety of styles—from chant and diatonic harmony to intricate modern arrangements and musical devices like organum, canon, inversion and imitation. Each volume is available as a choral songbook and CD.

Inspire your assembly with these pieces as the priest and eucharistic ministers receive communion, before general distribution. About one minute in length, the settings offer a brief moment of quiet listening. Christopher Walker has masterfully crafted melodies that convey the deeper meaning of the texts, reminding listeners of the power of God's word and the mystical devotion in the act of receiving Holy Communion.

Doxology Liturgical Songs in Praise of the Trinity

Doxology, features six contemporary and six traditional-style songs from a contemporary Catholic music pioneer. Three songs feature poetic, Scripture-based texts by Benedictine Sister Genevieve Glen.

“O Spirit of the Living Lord” is a stirring text set to a simple choral melody. Featured on spiritandsong.com’s The Commons, “Jesus Christ Is Lord” is a modern setting of Philippians 2:6-11 with Jenny Pixler on lead vocals. Ken’s original lyrics are all based on the Bible or on the Church’s official ritual texts.

Walking the Sacred Path
Spiritual Exercises for Today

Modeled after the Spiritual Exercises of St. Ignatius of Loyola, Walking the Sacred Path challenges us to engage the gospel stories through a simple process of prayer and reflection.

Each exercise is followed by a carefully selected piece of music from his extensive collection. These songs can be used as a way to calm the soul or as a prayerful reminder throughout the day. Whichever you choose, the goal remains the same: to slowly incorporate prayer into our everyday lives.

By combining the exercises in the book with the music from the CDs, as Dan explains, "we allow ourselves to become one of the people in the Bible story, to see, hear, smell, taste and respond to what is going on." Walking the Sacred Path is an invaluable way for parish staff, catechists and individuals to build a more intimate relationship with Jesus Christ.

Quiero Responder que Sí 15 cantos para celebrar los Quince Años

Inspired by the Hispanic custom of quinceañera, which celebrates a girl's passage from childhood into young adulthood at 15 years of age, Quiero Responder que Sí invites us to renew our commitment to follow Christ. Based on Psalm 121/122, "Vamos a la Casa del Señor" is a joyous processional song. The bilingual "Respuesta a la Oración de la Quinceañera" seamlessly blends recited prayer with three-voice choral response. Blessed with music from beloved composers including Mauricio Centeno and Carlos Rosas, this collection offers 15 songs (including 6 bilingual titles) to enrich preparation and Masses for quinceañeras as well as congregational worship throughout the year.

CONTEMPORARY MUSIC

Find peace in song

Sarah Hart Above Earth's Lamentation

Inspired by the many people enduring painful life events, this soothing 11-song collection provides support and comfort during difficult times, encouraging us to acknowledge, explore and come to peace through our lamentation.

While Above Earth's Lamentation contains congregational songs, the primary focus of the collection is personal prayer and individual healing. With calming harmonies and comforting lyrics, the music is a gentle companion through any difficult circumstance. It guides us toward an understanding that, even in the midst of our pain, God is present and loving.

Delivering a beautiful synergy of mood, lyric and melody, producer Paul Moak communicates the heart of singer-songwriter Sarah Hart's message that finding hope is possible. Piano, acoustic guitar, mandolin, fiddle, cello, and percussion beautifully support Sarah's organic vocal sound, which is rooted in the music of Appalachia.

From the thoughtful lyrics of "Praying with a Broken Heart" and the upbeat title track of "Hallelujah Is Our Song" to the inspirational message of "This Is Not Forever," Above Earth's Lamentation is a rich musical collection ideally crafted for any journey through lamentation to hope.

Steve Angrisano A New Day

Inspired by the Holy Spirit and arranged to follow the ancient tradition of the Liturgy of the Hours, A New Day showcases Steve Angrisano's profound ability to bring us to a deeper understanding of our everyday encounters with Christ—through nine soul-stirring songs from dawn till dusk.

Building around Steve's signature acoustic guitar, a driving percussion-layered banjo, ukulele and mandolin perpetuate a soulful and organic 'Americana' sound—akin to the band Mumford and Sons. Produced by Mark Byrd and Steve Hindalong (writers of "God of Wonders" by Third Day), listeners will delight in collaborations from today's contemporary Catholic music icons Sarah Hart, Jesse Manibusan and Curtis Stephen.

Filling a liturgical need for contemporary entrance and sending forth songs, both "May Your Kingdom Come" and "A Rightful Place"—the record's break-out single—are blessings to any liturgy or service. "10,000 Reasons," a cover of the popular Matt Redman title, carries Steve's familiar warmth and style while "Alleluia, Love Is Alive" captures the spirit of Easter proclaiming the Good News of our salvation with a "joyful shout"—just as the Gospel proclaims.

While appropriate for eucharistic liturgy and prayer services, A New Day also offers listeners unique inspiration for daily prayer—making it a welcome addition for personal listening and devotion. From "Benedictus" at sunrise to "Magnificat" at sunset these nine songs bring new focus and reflection to God's daily presence in our lives.

This enhanced CD includes free chord sheets, song lyrics, instructional videos, live performances and much more!

Hallelujah Is Our Song

If you're looking for music to rejoice and celebrate God's love, look no further than Sarah Kroger's Hallelujah Is Our Song. An inspired collection offering both liturgical and contemporary songs, this positive, energetic music will fill your heart and lift your spirit.

Sarah's sophomore release reveals a greater maturity from her as both a singer and songwriter. Collaboration with veteran musicians Sarah Hart and Josh Blakesley (continued from Sarah's first release, Your Time) brings forth deep and touching lyrics that speak to any Christian soul. Piano and guitar work together with Sarah's distinctive warm vocals to deliver a one-of-a-kind listening experience.

Inspired by scripture and her own life experiences rooted in parish ministry, Hallelujah Is Our Song features music for liturgy, personal prayer and beyond. The CD features creative interpretations of liturgical classics like "The King of Love My Shepherd Is" as well as songs that communicate messages of devotion and joyful worship such as "Letting Go" and "I Will Pour Out My Heart." The energetic title track, "Hallelujah Is Our Song," celebrates the joy and newness of Easter.

Sarah's elegance, delicate femininity and intimacy with our God shine through in every selection of this 7-track release. Taken together, they inspire a deeper understanding of ministry. Whether you are looking for approachable contemporary Catholic music for liturgy or prayer or just appreciate a fresh take on traditional liturgical music, look no further than Hallelujah Is Our Song!

Cooper Ray
Wake the Dawn

In his solo debut, Cooper welcomes you to every song with the same lighthearted optimism that has already reached so many through his speaking events.

“Sing Alleluia” kicks off the album with a joyful opening that makes you want to get up and dance. “Now” begs for you to sing along. The powerfully dynamic “Rain On Me” features chilling cello runs and vocals so heartfelt, you’d swear Cooper was right in front of you.

Produced by Tom Booth, Wake the Dawn encompasses the core of Cooper’s ministry: saying to God, “This is what I have to offer, use it, take it, do with it what you will.”

Curtis Stephan
Songs for Prayer and Worship

Gathering 18 of Curtis Stephan’s most popular—and most requested—prayer and worship songs into the convenience of one resource, this songbook gives music ministers a collection of beloved songs for use in the liturgy and beyond. Perfect for bacalaureate Mass or graduation, “Benediction” is a beautiful song of blessing for those embarking on their next journey. “Ready the Way” is a contemporary classic for Advent and “Take Up Our Cross” is wonderful throughout the year. Featuring easy-to-read arrangements for guitar and melody, Songs for Prayer and Worship contains capo conversions and helpful diagrams for more difficult chords. Pair the songbook with an MP3 playlist of recordings for each song!

Trevor Thomson
Christ in Me Arise

Parishes who use Breaking Bread (p. 6) or Music Issue (p. 8) know Trevor from liturgical staples, such as “We Belong To You” and “In This Place.” With his latest release, this seasoned composer provides another collection of 11 songs that call us to worship.

The title track speaks of overcoming the trials of life with the hope that only Christ can offer. “Immortal, Invisible” gathers some of the biggest names in contemporary Catholic music, including Tom Booth, Matt Maher and Danielle Rose! On the poetic “Firefly,” Trevor’s soaring vocals are reminiscent of Chris Martin’s (Coldplay) work on “Yellow” and “Fix You.”

Terry Robb Hymn

Ideal for casual listening or meditative moods, this 12-song collection of solo acoustic guitar instrumentals offers distinctive renditions of traditional and contemporary hymns and spirituals. Combining new with familiar, calm with upbeat, dissonant with harmonious, Hymn brings you deeper into reflection, worship and praise. These songs are an ideal accompaniment for most any time, from a gathering of friends on Monday evening to a quiet Sunday afternoon alone.

Terry's signature finger-picking style brings a unique sound to every song on the album. Often referred to as American primitivism, this transitional style ranges between country blues and early 20th century string-band music. Bringing this inventive, artistic style to newly arranged medleys of traditional and contemporary hymns, Terry offers distinctive interpretations of time-tested classics. Hymn provides a memorable listening experience, whether for meditation, relaxation or prayer.

From the medley arrangement "When I Lay My Burden Down/Peace Like a River/At the Cross I Watch and Pray," which takes the listener on a journey of bouncing rhythms, solemn moods, and joyful harmonies, to the contemplative moods of "Gaude Virgo" and "Sacred Silence" to the lighthearted, laidback rendition of "This Little Light of Mine," Hymn offers a colorful variety of music with wide appeal.

Owen Alstott

Hymns of Light, Volume 1 & 2

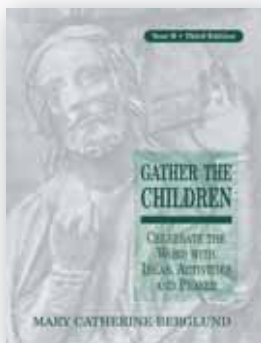

Grounded in strong scriptural themes--such as discipleship, humility, justice and love--these contemporary hymn texts give church music directors an inspiring resource for prayerful reflection. Set to well-known hymn tunes, these wonderful reflections can be used throughout the liturgical year. Each volume is conveniently divided into two parts: the first section contains hymn texts in poetic stanzas, each preceded by an inspirational Scripture passage; the second section provides the melody with Owen's well-crafted texts, in addition to topical themes and suggestions for seasonal use.
