

Complete Guide of Shopping Malls in Qatar

As tourists, we do wish to see how our country stands up to foreign lands. This guide to the major Qatar Shopping Malls will prove helpful or anyone who wishes to look over at the luxurious yet budget-friendly shopping complexes.

Villaggio Mall

- Situated within the Aspire Zone, Villaggio Mall will be spotted by everyone on the Al Waab Street, which is western part of the city.
- By tourists and residents of Qatar, it is one of the famous malls visited by thousands of people daily.
- Built while keeping the Venetian style of architecture, it includes entertainment centres, eateries and cinema halls, all meant for everyone.
- Villaggio Mall includes a wide range of brands, some of which are:
 - Dolce and Gabbana
 - Valentino
 - Louis Vuitton
 - Christian Dior
 - Gucci etc.

Alhazm Mall

- Alhazm Mall is your sweet place for all things European in the Middle of the Eastern Lands.
- A Combination of Fashion Boutiques, play areas for children and restaurants for everyone, Alhazm Mall is meant to be a place for everyone.
- Also known for its cafes and small bakeries throughout the mall, the Alhazm Mall truly encapsulates the ideal European living.

City Center

- City Center is situated in the center of Doha, West Bay. West Bay is known for having office complexes and business establishments.
- City Center proves great not only as Qatar's Shopping Malls but also as a great recreational place for movie enthusiasts, sports adventure lovers and foodies as well.
- It has 14 screens in its theatre floor, five floors dedicated to just shopping brands but luxurious and budget-friendly and an arena meant for ice rink.
- City Center also has over 35 restaurants in its complex, providing you a variety of cuisines to choose from.
- Annual festivals and stage shows are also held in its halls time to time, which are dedicated to different age groups and are mostly family oriented as well.

Alkhor Mall

- Named after the area it is situated in, the Alkhor Mall is the largest Mall in its developed vicinity.
- In contrast to the Alhazm Mall, Alkhor Mall is created keeping in mind the architectural style of the Arabian lands.
- With a variety of recreational activities to choose from (fashion establishments, gaming centres, family and entertainment areas etc.), the Alkhora Mall is a great option if you want to enjoy something homely.
- The traditional architecture combined with the international level of services and facilities provide the customers a pleasurable and joyful experience.

Doha Festival City

- The Doha Festival City is a step ahead of all the shopping malls you will find in Qatar.
- With over 100 restaurants and containing the largest hypermarket, Monoprix, IKEA, VOX Cinemas and various theme parks for children and adults alike, Doha Festival is truly a tiny city on its own.
- Delicacies found here range from street food to luxurious platters and course meals. Doha Festival City provides you with cuisine from all over the world: Arabian, European, Indian, American fast food etc.

Gulf Mall

- The Gulf Mall is built up on history. It is a creation made in honour of the GCC (Gulf Cooperation Council).
- Six arches symbolising each county, it leads to a spectacular interior which is inspired from ancient fortresses of the Arabian Lands.
- The heritage, values and culture of the Middle east will be showcased throughout the Gulf Mall.
- With that being said, it does have the most luxurious and high-end brands to ponder upon, including both national and international standard of shops and hospitality.

Ansar Gallery

- Ansar Gallery is not a stand-alone Mall in itself. It has over nine branches all over Qatar.
- It caters to people who enjoy both middle-class and luxurious brands.
- Having a variety of clothing for all classes, genders and kids, it is meant for every family shopping experience.
- Ansar Gallery is also known for a huge variety of electronics and gadgets.

Mall of Qatar

- Known for its variety of coffees, cafes and cakes, Mall of Qatar is a great option for youth and people who are adventurous.
- Its special sightseeing place is created by a water fountain right in front of the mall, which makes it a family-friendly place as well.
- Seasonally, events and dance performances are held around the Mall of Qatar, which is something every tourist must behold.

China Mall

- As the name suggests, this mall includes a variety of Chinese brands to shop from.
- A wide range of affordable furniture collections, household products and electronics, the China Mall proves to be budget-friendly and equally luxurious.
- Also known as the Dragon mart, the China Mall is meant to widen the horizons and shopping range of the tourists and residents of Qatar.
- With a great hospitality experience and shopping avenues, the China Mall will be perfect for people looking for affordable and exotic products to choose from.

Wondering which Qatar visa to apply for? With Qatar e-visa online, you can easily receive your visa in your inbox. It provides you with the documents you need to submit in order to get your visa approved and obtained by you within a period of 2 hours only!

With the variety of Shopping Malls, recreational complexes and stage event venues, being in Qatar will be a one-of-a-kind experience for anyone flying to the Heart of Gulf.

Date: 31 MAY 2020

Written By: Kruti Kanaskar

Word Count: 884 words

Keywords: Qatar Visa, Qatar shopping malls, Qatar shopping guide, malls in Qatar, places to visit, events in Qatar, largest mall in Qatar.