Mayor Shannon Glover
Remarks

Greetings! It is an honor and a pleasure to be here with you all today, as we come together to kick off this important event. This is the city's second time partnering with Project Toy Drop, which will distribute brand new toys and books to the youth of Portsmouth.

I want to thank the Department of Social Services for all their hard work in presenting two special days that will impact the youth of Portsmouth.

I also want to commend the efforts of the Kids Wish Network for making this day possible. Since 1997, the Kids Wish Network has been working diligently to grant children experiences that will improve their lives.

Today, the Kids Wish Network has implemented six initiatives used to make a difference and to create positive change in the lives of children across the United States.

One of those initiatives is Project Toy Drop. Through this program, communities are brought together, and positive relationships can be nurtured between youth and community leaders. The Kids Wish Network and Project Toy Drop continue to offer opportunities for the Portsmouth community to provide positive motivation and affirmation our youth needs.

Thank you for joining us this morning!
