LIFE OF A MIDGET

But he worked in several places, he could do any job and it made him happy. Until 2000 his life was hard, because he couldn't remember one good day from past. "When parents were coming to see children, my parents weren't here, I was always searching them but hopelessly. I think I don't have parents, they are alive, but not for me"- he mentions.

Living in Tbilisi

Firstly, when he came in Tbilisi, it was unfamiliar city for him. Isoevi heard that his parents lived in Gldani. He had also sister and brother, but nobody wanted to contact with him. They didn't want a disabled person in their house.

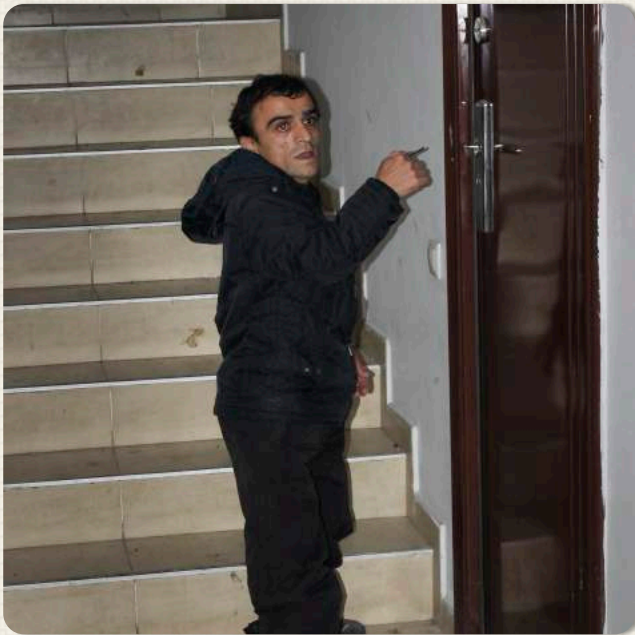

He was here for one month, then understood some rumors and went from their home. His first months were very hard. Malxaz met one boy and lived with him for a short period. Then Jemali, who was refugee, gave him possibility to work in a wooden tower.

He spent many days here, it was on Temka. They gave him food and care also. But after government took this wooden tower and another one was gifted by Ina Shioshvili. He set it in the middle of buildings to be warm.

HOME LIFE

Isoevi loves toys very much and he has collection of them.

He directed many people, but there wasn't help from anyone. Government didn't give him flat, so patriarchate found something for him in Varketili, but it doesn't belong to him.

He is afraid of dogs and bought special mechanism to make them afraid. It has special light and voice.
