

Trendy tots!

We ask PPP readers how they dress their little ones

Elizabeth Rodriguez, 4, from Kent

Wearing Dress, Ted Baker; coat, M&S; leggings, Tesco; trainers, Converse.

Mum Hayley's favourite brand "I can't get enough of Myleene Klass's Baby K range. It's funky, and includes tutus, which I love."
Elizabeth's must-have "Elizabeth thinks she's a princess and loves dressing in her Rapunzel outfit."
Style tip "Comfort is key, so elasticated waists are essential."

Isla Gemgunal, 1, from South East London

Wearing Top, Zara; waistcoat, Gap; leggings, Next; trainers, Converse.

Mum Natalie's favourite brand "I love Oillyly because the clothes they make are really individual and stand out from the crowd."
Isla's must-have "She won't leave the house without a bow in her hair!"
Style tip "Try to look for something unique and always accessorise."

Oliver Compton, 2, from Chislehurst

Wearing Shirt, Esprit; trousers, Primark; trainers, Converse.

Mum Samm's favourite brand "H&M for trendy togs, and M&S has great quality items."
Oliver's must-have "He loves wearing character clothes like Thomas the Tank Engine and dressing like a mini-me of his dad."
Style tip "Buy clothes based on how long they'll last and the fit."

Dolcie, 3, and Isla, 1, Sleep, from Canary Wharf

Both wearing Top and jeans, Next; trainers, Vans; hairclip, Asda.
Mum Kayleigh's favourite brand "I love Next because I can buy matching things in there. It's my obsession!"
Dolcie & Isla's must-haves "Anything pink and sparkly."
Style tip "Glitter makes an outfit glitzy and girly."

Lola Weiss, 2, from Finchley

Wearing Long-sleeved top and jeans, H&M; T-shirt, RockaBaby; boots, Kickers.

Mum Emma's favourite brand "H&M because their clothes are durable, but I really like items from boutiques, too."

Style tip "Colourful and quirky patterns are great for kids."

Rebekah Carlin, 1, from Epsom

Wearing Jacket, Tesco; top, Next; skirt, Marks & Spencer; tights, Sainsbury's; boots, Mothercare.

Mum Anne-Marie's favourite brand "The supermarkets do fantastic clothes these days."

Rebekah's must-haves "She's open-minded about fashion."

Style tip "You can get some great clothes in the sales."

Thierry Nicholson, 3, from Sevenoaks

Wearing Dress, Debenhams; coat, Next; tights, Sainsbury's; shoes, Peacocks.

Mum Emma's favourite brand "Next has such a big range and their clothes last for ages."

Thierry's must-haves: "She likes dressing up like a princess."

Style tip "Quality's really important, because things that last will save you pennies in the end."

Na'ima Williams, 3, from Thamesmead

Wearing Coat and tights, Debenhams; top, Next; boots, Very; scarf, gift.

Mum Genobia's favourite brand "I like choice, so places like Debenhams that stock a huge range work for me. It means my children can show me what they like."

Na'ima's must-haves "Skirts are an absolute staple."

Style tip "Embellishments like patterns and sequins freshen up any outfit."

Tyler Harrington, 11 months, from Enfield

Wearing Coat, jumper and trousers all Next; shoes, Clarks.

Mum Jadie's favourite brand "I always find something great in Next. Their clothes are comfy for Tyler to move in."

Tyler's must-have "He loves wearing shoes! He's learning to walk and they give him grip to help him stand."

Style tip "Plan outfits in advance, otherwise they'll go out looking like a mess!"
