If you've ever felt out of place, invisible, too sensitive, or just plain lost—Story Book will feel like it was written for you. Ben lives on a sailboat because the world doesn't fit him. Jay lives under benches because he can't fit anywhere at all. Even Franklin, with his goiter and heartbreak, finds joy in one night with a stranger. This book says: misfits are still worthy of love, memory, and even a little Heaven.
