

Mara Leyendecker &
Cody Ernst
April 23, 2021

Due to the couple enjoying Phantom of the Opera, it was only natural for them to have a masquerade themed wedding. Coincidentally, the theme coincided with their guests wearing masks due to the pandemic.

PHOTOGRAPHY: Bambino International CEREMONY: St. Martin of Tours Catholic Church RECEPTION: Bell Event Centre WEDDING PLANNER: Mara Leyendecker FLOWERS: Forever Floral and Rustic Sweethearts CAKE: Spoon Fulla Sugar GOWN: Eve of Milady, from Bridal and Formal TUX: Joseph A. Bank RENTALS: Bell Event Centre INVITATIONS: Zazzle BRIDE'S HAIR: Reign Beauty Studio BRIDE'S MAKEUP: Reign Beauty Studio CEREMONY MUSIC: St. Martin of Tours organ/piano RECEPTION MUSIC: CSC productions DJ CATERING: Bell Event Centre VIDEOGRAPHY: New Horizon Films TRANSPORTATION: A Savannah Night LASHES: Cincinnati Designer Lashes JEWELRY: Jared GROOM'S GIFT: Sporty's Academy BRIDE'S PROFESSION: Doctor GROOM'S PROFESSION: Nurse Practitioner COUPLE'S CURRENT HOME: Mount Lookout FAMILY MEANS EVERYTHING: Mara's grandmother who was a nun passed away about three years ago. Her grandmother's funeral was held at the same church as the wedding ceremony, St. Martin of Tours Catholic Church. The priest who presided over the funeral was also the same priest who officiated the ceremony. KEEPING TRADITIONS ALIVE: Mara used the same cake topper from her parents' wedding and wore her mother-in-law's tiara from her wedding.