When you March for Babies, who do you help?

David and Brandi were excited to be having triplets. However, at 19 weeks, Brandi went into preterm labor and delivered Penni Anne, who sadly was born too early to survive. Doctors were able to stop

Brandi's labor before she delivered the other babies. March of Dimes supported the research of rescue steroid shots that Brandi received to help the other two babies mature. Thanks to that research, Kameran and Blake were born at 34 weeks. Now at almost 17 months old, they are not missing a beat! While their journey has been challenging, the Petersons are thankful for the medical advances that March of Dimes has made possible. Read the Petersons' story.

But how can I raise money?

With walk day quickly approaching, it's important that you keep raising money for your team. We encourage every walker to try to raise at least $200, which is our first incentive prize

Meet Our Event Chair

The Southern Colorado Division is thrilled to have Reg Rudolph, General Manager of San Isabel Electric Association, serve as the 2015 Pueblo March for Babies Event Chair.

The mission of the March of Dimes is very admirable, and needed in our communities," said Rudolph. "I'm happy to lend my time to this great organization."

Rudolph lives in Pueblo West with his wife Tamra and two boys, Dayley and Dalton. He has been General Manager of San Isabel Electric Association since 2008 when he moved to Colorado from North Dakota.

Connect with us

Be sure to follow us on social media to find images, messages and other resources to help you with your fundraising! We are on Facebook, Twitter and Instagram at MarchofDimesCO.

March for Babies Family Teams are made up of walkers who embody the four faces of our mission: prematurity, infant loss, birth defects, and babies born healthy and on time — our wish for all babies and why we keep working hard to fundraise and Pay It Forward.

Every family, every baby has a story. What is your story? Every year our Ambassadors share their story throughout the community helping draw awareness to our mission and work. Although their story helps us put a local face on a global mission, we know they are only one of (too) many families who have been touched.

Share your story and your mission reason at March for Babies this year by having a Story Board created for you. Please contact your local March for Babies staff member, Lina Betts to learn how you can do this. All stories must be received by April 3 to be included.
