

Downtown Scranton is buzzin' with business this fall!

Fall Into Downtown Scranton, a project of Scranton Tomorrow, features promotions throughout the month of October encouraging everyone to support local. Our theme, "The Good of the Hive," is creating quite a buzz as we celebrate the installation of our latest Downtown mural, which is part of artist Matt Willey's international "The Good of the Hive" project.

When you shop and dine in Downtown Scranton, you help to create a healthy economy for everyone in your colony -- family, neighbors and friends. We think that's pretty sweet!

Honey & Harvest Restaurant Week, October 12 to 15

THE GOOD OF THE HIVE®

Scranton Tomorrow's Mural Arts Program continues with the installation of a mural honoring honeybees on the Scranton Civic Ballet Company building, Rear 234 Mifflin Avenue, Downtown Scranton. The mural is part of artist Matthew Willey's global art project, The Good of the Hive.

This project is made possible with support from the Wright Center for Patient & Community Engagement, Lackawanna County Commissioners, Lackawanna Heritage Valley, The University of Scranton, Space Time Mead and Cider Works, Terrana Law Firm, and Lackawanna College.

'The Good of the Hive' master class and lecture

Artist Matthew Willey will present a master class and lecture, "The Good of the Hive," on Friday, October 14, at 6 p.m., in the theater at Lackawanna College, 501 Vine Street, Downtown Scranton. The event is free and open to the public. Seating is first come, first-served. Lackawanna College is the academic sponsor of this event.
