First up is the amazing-looking pink Kirby Burger with Meat Sauce and Seasonal Vegetables, which comes with not only pasta and a cheeseburger, but steak fries, tater tots, and a special plate that you can take home once you've eaten everything on it. You also get a cup of soup, which makes it seem like a real bargain at $24. That is, if you even want to eat it after it arrives, given how cute it is.

You could also opt for the delicious Waddle Dee Napping Rice Omelet, which is a delicious “omurice” shaped like the popular Kirby character. Look at that ketchup! That rice! That egg! Yum.

The Kirby appetizer cypress is much more like what we'd expect from Kirby, as the fluffy pink character is caught trying to suck up the yummy mozzarella and tomato for his

Chef Kawasaki's Capricious Break Bowl Stew looks just like something you'd order from your local Panera Bread, and it seems like a great, hearty stew bearing plenty of stars and delicious items on the side, too!

This particularly sweet-looking Kirby Fluffy Strawberry Mousse looks light and delicate, but also plenty airy and fruity. Who doesn't like having some strawberry mousse in their life?

If the mousse isn't enough sugar for you, you can instead opt for the Whispy Woods Sweets Plate, which brings you six different dessert types, a small ceramic Kirby or Waddle Dee to take home with you, and a presentation second to none. Just look how impressive that is!

This selection of dishes, including a particularly cute set of beverages, silverware, and plushies you can only get at this cafe, will be available for a limited time on September 27 and will be open all the way through February 17. You can make online reservations if you're planning on visiting, too, which you totally should if you find yourself in the neighborhood.
