

Skilled Nurses Like You Choose Children's

It was great to connect with you at the 2023 National Black Nurses Association Institute and Conference. We're glad you stopped by, and we hope you left with a greater understanding of why skilled nurses like you choose to work at Children's Healthcare of Atlanta. Our System is growing, so there's never been a better time to join our team.

Let's Stay in Touch

Join our Talent Community to be the first to know about job opportunities that match your interests, what's happening at Children's and the perks of being part of our team.

Join Our Community

Take a Closer Look at Children's Healthcare of Atlanta

A Reputation for Nursing Excellence

Children's is one of the leading pediatric care providers in the country, continually recognized for our commitment to excellent patient care, professional development and promoting nursing staff wellness. With Egleston Hospital receiving its second designation in 2023, we have two Magnet-designated hospitals recognized by the American Nurses Credentialing Center (ANCC). Hughes Spalding Hospital is also a Pathways to Excellence-designated hospital.

Children's WorkFlex for Nurses: Work That Fits You

No matter your career goals, experience level, scheduling needs or compensation desired, we can customize a career path just for you. Explore our full-time, part-time, contract and PRN nursing positions in both inpatient and outpatient settings.

A Day in the Life at Children's: ED Nursing Takes Tenacity

Nursing in the fast-paced Hughes Spalding ED takes teamwork and out-of-the-box thinking. As a clinical nurse at Children's for 16 years, Roxanne has gained the skills and expertise she needs to excel caring for kids and teens in this unique environment.

Ready to launch a career you love at Children's?
Take a look at our current job openings!

Search Open Positions

Connect with us!

