

Superhero.

At UVA Children's Hospital, our heroes do not leap tall buildings in a single bound. They are pint-sized and playful and maybe just a little afraid of the dark. Through illness and injury, they put on a brave face and fight a good fight. Their laughter gives us strength and their hugs give us our purpose: to do our best for them every day. They are our heroes — cape not required.

childrens.uvahealth.com