

An Inside Look at Children's Healthcare of Atlanta

In this newsletter, we provide a closer look at the programs and initiatives that make Children's an inclusive, supportive workplace, with a team committed to caring for kids—and each other. These are just some of the reasons clinical and non-clinical job seekers choose Children's.

Building Belonging: Get to Know Two AAPI Team Members Working to Make Children's a Welcoming Workplace

At Children's, we take every opportunity to highlight the unique stories and contributions of our team members. In honor of Asian American Pacific Islander (AAPI) Heritage Month in May, we asked two employees to share their thoughts on how Children's is building a sense of belonging.

Cultivating Camaraderie: New Program Pairs Clinical and Non-Clinical Teams to Help Foster Connection

As part of our new Adopt-A-Team program, non-clinical departments "adopt" clinical teams. The goal: to reinforce our team's connection to our Mission and boost morale by recognizing the unique contributions of every employee, no matter their role.

Lifting Spirits: Welcome Our Newest Pups, Marvel and Blanche

Working in pediatric healthcare can be challenging. One of our team's favorite pick-me-ups? Our furry fleet of facility dogs! Our Canines for Kids team is growing, recently welcoming two new pups. Marvel is Hughes Spalding Hospital's first facility dog and Blanche will provide comfort and companionship to staff and patients at Scottish Rite Hospital.

Putting You First: Hear How One Night-Shift Nurse Prioritizes Wellness

At Children's, we encourage our team to prioritize self-care so that they can be at their best for the people who depend on them. See how one night-shift nurse finds opportunities to clear her mind and stay connected to loved ones despite her hectic schedule.
