

SACRIFICE A COFFEE TODAY. TO SEND A CHILD RAW HOPE TOMORROW. SO SIMPLE. SO WILL YOU?

Ever go out for coffee? A cuppa? A bun? A beer? Skip just one a week and be a SUPERHERO to a child in desperate danger.

A child like ...

Chelimo, from Sudan. Burning up with fever, her body rigid from shock. After female genital mutilation (FGM) with an infected blade. She's just 8 years old.

Or Clarisse. Alone and scared. She's already seen both parents killed in Congo's conflicts. Aged 11, she faces a stark choice. To join a brothel as a sex worker. Or starve.

Incredibly, children can bounce back.
Even from such unimaginable suffering.

Think it's too hard? To get an urgent medic to Chelimo?
Think you can't make a difference? To give Clarisse a home, food, and another chance at childhood? Think again.

It's up to you, of course, but you can make a vital difference today. How? By joining the collective kindness of people who sacrifice an occasional cuppa, cake or glass of beer.

Incredible people whose combined effort fuels World Vision's campaign of Raw Hope for kids in acute danger.

Protect a child through
Raw Hope, who:

- 1. Campaign to end the distressing practice of FGM forever
- 2. Educate villages where FGM still happens about the awful risks
- 3. Provide specialist care and urgent support for FGM survivors

Rebuild a life through
Raw Hope, who:

- 1. Battle for children's rights in places no-one else can or will
- 2. Care for and support survivors of violence and abuse
- 3. Champion child parliaments, giving kids skills and a strong voice

What if Clarisse were your sister?

Or Chelimo your daughter or granddaughter? Imagine your joy if someone offered hope? Simply by skipping a pot of tea, a sticky bun, a latte or a beer. With every penny saved helping a child access medicine, food or a safe haven – fast.

Be incredible. Send the girls a chance to bounce back, before it's too late. Please turn over – to gift them £10 a month, equivalent to just one £2.50 treat, once a week.

Thank you. That's all we ask. Raw Hope will do the rest.

Protecting children & rebuilding lives • RAW HOPE + WORLD VISION • When no-one else can

THANK YOU!

Do you have any idea how important YOU are to the work of the RAW HOPE campaign?

Your money brings hope to children in the most dangerous places on earth. Especially those in immediate danger.

Including in Somalia, North and South Sudan, Afghanistan, Pakistan and Democratic Republic of Congo (DRC).

Did you know? People in the UK fuelled World Vision's work to transform the future for more than 3 million children in 2017. Your generosity is deeply appreciated.

Every cappuccino, every cup of tea, sticky bun or beer you skip helps rebuild a life. How incredible is that?

And there's more work to do. Discover the resilience of children and their success stories at Worldvision.org.uk as we make progress in our ambitious, far-sighted mission:

 No Child Without A Future ***

P.S. Please help us keep operating costs to a minimum. Invite others to join you in contributing. Share this message with relatives, friends and followers on social media. Many thanks!

P.P.S. We understand if World Vision's mission is not for you. So why not find another cause and skip a treat for them instead? Be a superhero and stand behind a cause you truly believe in.
