

THINK

Analyze some of the choices that you have made in your life by classifying them using the graphic organizer

ASSESS

A. Identify the following

1. The state of existence of all things
 - Reality
2. A type of knowledge gained from experience
 - Posteriori Knowledge
3. A theory of knowledge which states that knowledge is based on human reason alone
 - Rationalism
4. The explanation of a thing's function, end, goal
 - Purpose
5. The capacity of man to control his actions
 - Agency
6. A branch of philosophy which studies what is right and wrong and applies them in real life
 - Moral Philosophy or Ethics
7. A method of analysis which uses a series of questions to systematically analyze a topic or issue
 - Socratic Method
8. A principle which identifies the most acceptable solution as one which has the fewest assumptions
 - Occam's razor
9. These are statements that convey certain assumptions in a philosophical discussion
 - Axioms
10. A systematic analysis of arguments and statements to determine their truthfulness
 - Formal Logic

B. Identify to which philosophical question of the following statements refer. Write the letter of your choice

- A. Reality
- B. Certainty
- C. Causality
- D. Ethics

1. Is it for one life to be sacrificed, so that hundreds will be saved?
- D
2. When that politician said that he ran for office because he wanted serve, was he being sincere or deceitful?
- D
3. The passage of time is an illusion
- A
4. What factors brought about the Great Recession in the United States in 2007?
- C
5. The rampant abuse of natural resources and the uncontrolled release of greenhouse gases into the atmosphere had contributed to global warming and climate change
- C
6. We happen to live in one many possible worlds
- A
7. It is not right for one man to live in prosperity while thousands suffer in poverty
- D
8. Let's find out what happens when we mix potassium chloride and sodium nitrate
- B
9. Everything that happens is according to God's divine plan
- C
10. The forensic evidence gathered from the crime scene proves that the suspect was in the room when the crime was committed
- B