

ARTICLE: Students' Educational Use of Facebook Groups

What do you know about Students' Educational Use of Facebook Groups	What do you want about Students' Educational Use of Facebook Groups	What do you learn about Students' Educational Use of Facebook Groups
1.) Facebook users can make Facebook groups. 2.) Facebook users can share their thoughts through messaging their members in the Facebook group. 3.) Facebook groups connect with people who have same interests. 4.) Facebook groups can share news through sharing the post or sending the link. 5.) Facebook groups can send notes or references to help one another.	1.) The Facebook Group can help students to do their tasks accurately and creatively. 2.) Through Facebook groups, students can boost their self-esteem. 3.) Facebook groups can share educational videos by posting or sending in Facebook. 4.) Facebook users can engage to society, so that they can apply to their real-life situations. 5.) Facebook user can learn vocabularies and grammar from other users. They can use or apply in writing and reading comprehension.	1.) I learned about peer-to-peer learning through Facebook groups. 2.) I learned to socialize with others through online. Also, it will be helpful in conveying messages to not misinterpret my opinions. 3.) I saw local and international news that can keep me updated and provides important educational value. 4.) I learned people's experiences and recommendations in different courses and universities. It guides me to have a right choice or course in college. 5.) I learned different languages by scrolling to news feeds.