Valley of Valor	Freya	Hail Bree! So good to see you again. Your Wind Drake is readied by the loft.
Valley of Valor	Bree	Hail Freya, good to see you too! Its a fine day for a flight, isn't it?
Valley of Valor	Freya	Sure is! Are you going out on a mission?
Valley of Valor	Bree	I'm just taking Regal out to harvest some Essence. Let him stretch out his wings for a bit.
Valley of Valor	Freya	Sure thing Bree, then I'll leave you to it. Godspeed!
Valley of Valor	Bree	It is good to be up in the skies again.
Valley of Valor	Bree	The view is breath-taking as always! Come on Regal, time to gather some Essence.
Valley of Valor	Bree	The valley is replete with Essence. Let's haul in as much as we can!
Valley of Valor	[INSTRUCTION]	Swipe HERE (on the actual position) to tumble sideways and collect the Essence.
Valley of Valor	Bree	A Krocotaur? Well, these creatures do love Essence. Looks like we will have to fight our way through.
Valley of Valor	Bree	The Krocotaur will fire Plasma orbs at us. Those Plasma orbs are slow but they will deal some serious damage.
Valley of Valor	Bree	I can destroy the Plasma orbs with my attacks!
Valley of Valor	[INSTRUCTION]	Tap and hold HERE (on the actual position) to fire Bree's Scepter Shards. Target the Plasma orbs to shoot them down.
Valley of Valor	Bree	The Krocotaur is no match for us. It shall live to fight another day.
Valley of Valor	Bree	Strakens here in the valley?! These creatures can pose a serious problem for the Bastion. We need to take them out fast!
Valley of Valor	Bree	Regal! Its your turn to shine. Make every shot count!
Valley of Valor	[INSTRUCTION]	Move the targeting reticle HERE (text is above the diagram).
Valley of Valor	[INSTRUCTION]	Tap and hold HERE (text is above the diagram) to lock-on targets. Let go to fire Zephy Bolts that will track and destroy targets.
Valley of Valor	[INSTRUCTION]	Defeat all enemies with Regal's Zephyr Bolt attack
Valley of Valor	Bree	Those Strakens sure are relentless.
Valley of Valor	Bree	But that fighting has made Regal all fired up... A few more shots and we can unleash the Zephyr Storm.
Valley of Valor	[INSTRUCTION]	Attacking the enemy with Zephyr Bolts will charge up this gauge. When the bar is full, you can unleash the Zephyr Storm (pointing at the SP bar).
Valley of Valor	[INSTRUCTION]	Swipe up to unleash the Zephyr Storm! (text is above the diagram).
Valley of Valor	Bree	Those Strakens have never been so bold to roam this close to the Bastion. The Elders must learn of this... Time to head back to the Bastion.
Valley of Valor	Bree	The Krocotaur is back to finish the fight. Let's show him what we've got!

Valley of Valor	Freya	Bree! The Bastion is under siege! Everyone is dispatched to deal with the attackers!
Valley of Valor	Bree	Under siege? I did not encounter any interlopers during my patrol. Who are the attackers?
Valley of Valor	Freya	It ain't people! It's the creatures from the wild! They are attacking us like they've all gone crazy!
Valley of Valor	Bree	Wild creatures? I'll head out to deal with them. Stay safe Freya!
Valley of Valor	Freya	Bree! Thank the stars you're back! The creature attacks have been curbed for now...
Valley of Valor	Freya	But we've got bigger problems!
Valley of Valor	Freya	A colossal monster has emerged and it is destroying everything in its path!
Valley of Valor	Bree	A colossal monster?
Valley of Valor	Freya	Yes! It is bigger than any other creature we've seen! We are doing our best to boost the Bastion's defenses. But if that colossal monster attacks us now, I don't think the Bastion will hold!
Valley of Valor	Bree	Alright, Regal and I will head out now. We will do our best to stop that thing!
Valley of Valor	Bree	Stay safe Freya!
Valley of Valor	Freya	Thanks Bree! We are counting on you!
Valley of Valor	Freya	Phew! That was close! I thought we were goners for sure.
Valley of Valor	Freya	All thanks to you our tribe is safe!
Valley of Valor	Bree	I'm just glad that the Bastion is no longer in danger.
Valley of Valor	Freya	Now that the colossal monster is gone, we should speak to the chief.
Valley of Valor	Freya	There are some concerns over the wild creatures' attack.
Valley of Valor	Torald	Hail Bree! Our tribe is spared the destruction thanks to your efforts. We owe you a debt of gratitude.
Valley of Valor	Torald	Nonetheless, the attack from those wild creatures is still a cause for concern. We need to find out why they attacked us.
Valley of Valor	Bree	Those creatures have never wondered this close to the Bastion.
Valley of Valor	Bree	We even ran into a sizable group of Strakens during our patrol in the valley.
Valley of Valor	Torald	Strakens? This is unprecedented.
Valley of Valor	Torald	Perhaps something happened where the creatures dwell that drove them out to our domain...
Valley of Valor	Torald	For all the years that the Bastion stood, we have never encountered creature attacks of such magnitude.
Valley of Valor	Torald	We need to send our scouts to survey the realms for any information we can learn about this phenomenon.
Valley of Valor	Torald	Bree. Go forth to the Verdant Forest and find out anything you can about the Strakens' anomalous behaviour. Maybe you can find some clues.
Valley of Valor	Bree	I shall set off for the Verdant Forest at once.
Verdant Forest	Bree	Things seem awfully quiet around here...
Verdant Forest	Bree	We should be right at the heart of Straken territory.
Verdant Forest	Bree	Let's keep moving forward. Perhaps we will encounter more Strakens ahead.

Verdant Forest	Bree	That fiendish thing is gone...
Verdant Forest	Bree	I have never seen any creature as oddly looking as it was...
Verdant Forest	Torald	How goes your investigation of the Verdant Forest? Have you found anything?
Verdant Forest	Bree	We reached the heart of Straken territory but all the Strakens seemed to have left the place.
Verdant Forest	Bree	So we explored further and encountered a group of fiendish creatures.
Verdant Forest	Torald	Fiendish creatures, huh? Something tells me that they could be the reason why those Strakens were made to encroach upon our domain.
Verdant Forest	Bree	That would make sense... Those Strakens appear to be fleeing from something. And those fiendish creatures could be it!
Verdant Forest	Torald	Dealing with them might be our solution to stave off further Straken attacks.
Verdant Forest	Torald	Find and dispatch those creatures Bree, but be careful out there.
Verdant Forest	Bree	Those fiendish creatures are nowhere to be found. Seems we have lost track of them...
Verdant Forest	Bree	Wait.. Whats that?
Verdant Forest	Bree	There they are! C'mon Regal, lets go after them!
Verdant Forest	Torald	You've been gone for some time now Bree. How goes your hunt for those fiendish creatures?
Verdant Forest	Bree	They were difficult to track, but we caught up with them in the depths of the forest caverns.
Verdant Forest	Bree	We chased them as far as we could, but they still managed to slip away from us.
Verdant Forest	Bree	And it is the depths of those caverns that I had to go toe to toe against an enormous monster of the forest.
Verdant Forest	Torald	Another colossal monster?
Verdant Forest	Bree	I believe so, yes. One that has affinity to the forest.
Verdant Forest	Bree	It had near impenetrable hide and long powerful tendrils.
Verdant Forest	Bree	This monster appears to have control over the other creatures and even summoned them to battle.
Verdant Forest	Bree	We were fortunate enough to discover its weakspot and turn the battle to our favour.
Verdant Forest	Torald	Your description of this colossal creature does conjure up the old tales that I have heard during my youth. The elders spoke of colossal guardians of Hyperia - the Overbeasts, that reside deep in the heart of each realm. Perhaps these colossal creatures were the guardians of old...
Verdant Forest	Torald	In any case, I'm glad you made it back in one piece.
Verdant Forest	Freya	Chief! Apologies for the interruption, but the northern tribe is in dire need of our help!
Verdant Forest	Freya	Scouts that return from Riven Nord bring troubling news of a colossal monster attack.
Verdant Forest	Torald	Attack in the north?
Verdant Forest	Torald	We must send help to our kin...
Verdant Forest	Torald	Bree, they will need your help there. Go forth to their aid. Make haste!
Riven Nord	Bree	Looks like we've made it to Riven Nord.

Riven Nord	Bree	The guild hall should be just ahead!
Riven Nord	Bree	Oh no! The town has been overrun with monsters!
Riven Nord	Bree	We need to clear out these monsters and help the tribesmen!
Riven Nord	Bree	The giant ice spires are everywhere...
Riven Nord	Bree	And those poor souls are frozen stiff... What could have caused this?
Riven Nord	Bree	These ice spires appear to form some sort of a trail.
Riven Nord	Bree	We need to follow this trail and find the cause of this destruction!
Riven Nord	Bree	Did you feel that?
Riven Nord	Bree	Something is causing tremors here...
Riven Nord	Bree	Stay sharp for whatever's coming our way.
Riven Nord	Bree	Those tremors are getting stronger...
Riven Nord	Bree	Watchout for the falling ice stalagtites!
Riven Nord	Bree	Those things could do some serious damage.
Riven Nord	Torald	Hail Bree! The warm winds have brought you back safely to our tribe.
Riven Nord	Freya	I bear grim news Torald...
Riven Nord	Freya	The northern tribe, our kinsmen, have been obliterated. Their village has become a lore of wild monsters.
Riven Nord	Bree	We've repelled them for now, but we had to defeat the northern Overbeast as well.
Riven Nord	Torald	The situation is graver than we thought. While you were gone, Bree, I looked into the books of our elders.
Riven Nord	Torald	It is said that the Overbeasts are the guardians of our realms. So they must be placid and collected.
Riven Nord	Torald	The fact that they've turned hostile, must mean there is a serious danger approaching, far greater than we can possibly imagine - the balance of our realms might be shaken.
Riven Nord	Torald	This situation might cause a calamity in our world, if we do not act as fast as we can.
Riven Nord	Torald	I hereby order to every division of Galeriders to disband in different territories of our realm and investigate this matter! We must repel the monstrous enemies before they've obliterated us all!

Riven Nord

Torald

Bree, you are entrusted with the area of Umber Desert. May the swift winds guide you!
