What I do at CNN

Associate Writer, Digital | April 2021

- Report and write general national and breaking news for CNN.com, covering crime, mass shootings, gun violence, weather disasters, climate change, abortion and more
- Produce on average of three to four stories daily by working independently and collaborating with colleagues
- Identify strong news angles for morning audiences and consistently garner millions of unique views on stories

What I did

The Associated Press

News Associate | May 2019 - April 2021

- Wrote three to six news articles daily covering AP's Midwest region
- Supervised the editorial desk for 14 states, edited stories and delegated assignments
- Verified and secured user-generated content

The Jersey Journal

Reporting Intern | August 2018 - May 2019

- Led breaking news, with a focus on gun violence, policing and fires
- Investigated the impact of the opioid crisis and conducted local election analysis
- Developed sources and built community connections via bilingual interviews (English/ Arabic)

Politico

Fellow | May 2018

- Selected from a pool of dozens of candidates to participate in an intensive 10-day reporting training program, where I produced a story on the North Dakota voter ID law's impact on the 2018 Senate race

Education
