With Kids Club

Parents are always looking for fun ways to help their kids stay curious, be engaged, and learn new skills. That's exactly what our Kids Club Series does! When you start your own series, you'll get a new Kids Club box every two months that you can share and demo at parties.

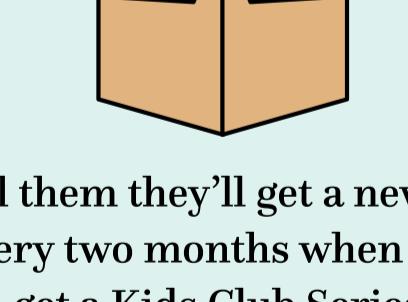

Order yours early this month so you can be one of the first to get all the new boxes. It's the perfect way to keep kitchen adventures going all year long.

How to Share Kids Club at Parties

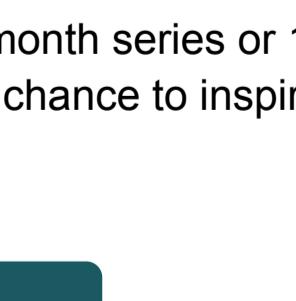

Highlight how each box delivers a hands-on experience kids will love and learn from.

Encourage guests to see, touch, and taste all the fun for themselves.

Share your own stories about Kids Club to inspire parents to get their kids cooking.

Tell them they'll get a new box every two months when they get a Kids Club Series.

Ready to start your Kids Club Series? Choose a 6-month series or 12-month series. With either option, you'll make every party a chance to inspire little chefs—and grow your business.
