

KENT HRBEK

Kent "Herbie" Hrbek is a hometown hero through and through. Born and raised in Minnesota, Hrbek spent his entire 14-year baseball career with the Minnesota Twins (1981–1994). On August 24, 1981, he made his major league debut by hitting a game-winning home run in the 12th inning against the New York Yankees. He also led his team to victory in the 1987 and 1991

World Series by making several memorable plays, which included a grand slam in Game 6 off Cardinals reliever Ken Dayley. In 1995, the Minnesota Twins retired his #14 jersey. He was also inducted into the Minnesota Twins' Hall of Fame.
