

UCJ – ISO 9001:2015 Certification Project Communication Plan

Ref #: UCJ/311/6

1.0 Introduction

The University Council of Jamaica is working to achieve the ISO 9001:2015 Certification by March 2018. As the organisation prepares to achieve this certification, internal and change communication will play a crucial role in the project's success.

2.0 Communications Objectives

1. To foster an environment that focuses on delivering quality services at all levels through a sustained communications programme
2. To keep staff informed and motivated throughout the project (to ensure that all staff are aware of QMS system requirements and implications of not conforming to QMS requirements)
3. To ensure that ongoing feedback is received from staff and their input sought throughout
4. To share useful information about the ISO 9001:2015 certification and the stages that the project will take
5. To communicate how ISO will affect each employee's output and daily workflow
6. To explain how ISO will continually improve the UCJ's levels of efficiency and customer-focus

3.0 Outcomes

The UCJ's desired outcomes:

- The UCJ is ISO 9001:2015 Certified by March 2018.
- High level of customer satisfaction
- High level of staff satisfaction
- The UCJ taking a risk-based thinking approach
- Ongoing improvements

4.0 Target group:

- Staff
- Council members

5.0 Execution Timeline: During the period, April 2017- March 2018, the UCJ will embark on a wide range of communication activities that are aimed at increasing awareness of the ISO and about the ISO 9001: 2015 certification project. From April 2018 onwards, the UCJ will continue its communications programme following internal feedback and evaluation.
