

Some Vermont Restaurants That You Can Go To During the Pandemic

The November 13th mandate forced all bars and clubs to not have patrons inside their establishments due to the COVID-19 until further notice. They still can do orders regarding takeout, curbside pickup, & delivery though. The restaurants received a 10:00 PM curfew to reduce the crowd of patrons but they must ensure that proper safety precautions are always being done. There are some wonderful options for grub still available and I will let you about some of the restaurants' delicious offerings.

Ken's Pizza and Pub

Ken's Pizza and Pub have true cooks & their food is so scrumptious. Start with some appetizers that will wow you. Order the Irish Nachos and those are French fries that have Monterey jack cheese, bacon, and scallions on them. The combination of flavors will make you want to jump up for joy at times.
