Contemporary student laundry service arrives in Charlotte

CHARLOTTE, NORTH CAROLINA (June 1, 2021) – On June 1, 2021, College Clean Laundry, a leader in laundry services for college students, will open its first North Carolina location near the University of North Carolina at Charlotte.

In an effort to relieve the stress that busy students know, College Clean Laundry offers a unique service by not only washing clothes, but also drying and folding. The franchise, started in 2012, has found success in over 30 locations. The company attributes its success to the simple convenience of its services.

“College students are busy, and College Clean Laundry’s purpose is to give them one less thing to worry about, and that’s clean clothes,” said Alexis Barnes, founder and CEO of College Clean Laundry.

The laundry service will be unlike any other Charlotte has to offer. Students will only be required to purchase a custom, reusable laundry bag. The bag will be used for each visit for a flat rate fee. The fee will include all services including washing, drying, and folding.

“With so many students living in our city, Charlotte is the perfect place for College Clean Laundry to get its start in North Carolina,” said Sky Thompson, Store Manager of University City’s College Clean Laundry. “We’ve even decorated our store with green and gold to show some niner pride.”

On its first day of business in University City, College Clean Laundry will offer UNC Charlotte students a grand opening celebration. Students are encouraged to come check out the city’s first and only student-oriented laundry service.

About: College Clean Laundry

As a unique student-oriented laundry service, College Clean Laundry has grown from one store near New York University to 33 franchised locations in seven states along the East Coast. College Clean Laundry aims to aid students in their busy lives by eliminating the stress of time-consuming laundry.
