Flights of Fancy

Embark on a lavish getaway in the industry's first-ever fully branded jet service. Beginning February 2015, experience jet setting like no other as the Four Seasons Jet takes you on the most exclusive of flights, complemented by luxury stays in Four Seasons properties across the globe.

Discover fascinating destinations as you fly in style on board the premium hotel chain's very own dashing Boeing 757 plane. Featuring the iconic Four Seasons logo on the tail and swathed in elegantly designed interiors, every inch of the aircraft exudes luxury, to further enhance your jet setting. Stay connected on-board with wireless Internet, which especially comes handy when scheduling spa treatments, private excursions, tee times and more on-the-go arrangements on land and air.

With the perfect combination of luxury and adventure, the Four Seasons Jet allows you to see the world from a higher perspective. Immerse in unique cultures through expert itineraries, starting with the 'Around the World' journey, a 24-day travel extravaganza accompanied by five-star amenities. Encompassing nine destinations, this bucket list-worthy experience starts in Los Angeles and ends in London. It is only limited to 52 guests, and includes air travel, ground transportation, carefully planned excursions and delectable meals. Be one of the first to experience Four Seasons' fancy flights as the brand takes luxury travel to new heights. www.fourseasons.com/aroundtheworld
