A national company that cleans meatpacking plants violated child labor laws when servicing a George's Inc. facility in Batesville and Tyson Foods plants in Green Forest and Goodlettsville, Tenn., the U.S. Labor Department said.

Packers Sanitation Services Inc. was ordered to pay more than $1.5 million in penalties after a Labor Department investigation found the company had employed children from ages 13 to 17 to do hazardous work at 13 meatpacking plants in eight states.
