LIGHTS, CAMERA, ...CRICKETS?

You know quality video content is the key to growing your brand in 2025. You've tried doing it in-house or hiring freelancers, but you keep ending up with:

Lakcluster Content

Amateur video production and inconsistent editing are doing you dirty. Worst of all, your videos never seem to capture the essence of what makes your brand unique (aka your story vibe).

Low Engagement

Instead of captivating viewers, your posts are getting lost in the feed. You're starving for content that connects with your audience and turns casual browsers into loyal followers.

DIY Overwhelm

Developing concepts, planning shoots, editing, and more... it's way too much for you and your team to handle! You need help from pros who know video production inside and out.

YOUR STORY, TOLD BY DIGITAL FILM EXPERTS

Led by Anthony Raffaele, a seasoned film professional with over 15 years of experience working on big studio films and TV series, Story Vibe Media brings the glamour and entertainment of Tinseltown to your small business.
