EXPLORE THE SONORAN DESERT

In the Sonoran Desert, nature comes in many forms. Golf courses wind through regal saguaro and rolling hills. Guided hikes stop at historic petroglyphs. Stargaze under the desert sky. Bike through the Tortolita Mountains, whose name means "little dove." Cocktails feature citrus from our resort's orchard. And hotel activities invite young guests to put on their ranger hat. Venture beyond the hotel and find treasure, including national parks, shopping, art galleries and live entertainment.

A HOLISTIC SPA RESORT NEAR TUCSON, AZ

Nature's healing power is no secret. Communities have drawn on it since the beginning of time. At The Ritz-Carlton Spa, Dove Mountain, spa treatments take a holistic, natural approach to health and wellness. Indigenous Tucson gemstones ease sore muscles, restore balance and clear energy. A poultice of indigo, favored by Native American shamans to treat aches and pains, and warm basalt stones are incorporated into massages. Desert flora extracts are used to quench parched skin. This unique experience, paired with the resort's beautiful setting, has made the day spa a favorite with readers of Condé Nast Traveler and a wellness destination for locals and visitors to Tucson, AZ.
