PROGRESS AND MILESTONES

EU Holidays was founded by a group of experienced directors passionate about their work in the travel industry. They wanted to do something new that could better serve the travel needs of consumers, which is the main driving force behind the establishment of our travel agency.

Within five years of business operations, we have expanded EU Holidays and opened up three other subsidiary offices to focus on the various needs of our customers. The EU MICE office was set up in 2013 to cater for corporate travel with a focus on corporate meetings, conventions and events.

In that same year, EU Asia was launched to cater for customers who are interested in travelling within Asia. In the following year, we opened up EU Vacations to serve the Malaysian market. In doing so, EU Holidays strives to constantly improve our products and services so that we can better serve our customers.

Despite being a young company, EU Holidays has gained significant recognition from both customers and industry professionals. Founded in late 2010, EU Holidays was voted Top MasterCard Supporter in NATAS Travel for four consecutive years since 2012. Since then, EU Holidays was named the 'Best Travel Agency for Europe and USA Tours' as voted by readers of ESCAPE! Magazine.

After just two years in the business, EU Holidays was presented with two valuable awards – the Asia Excellence Award 2013 and the Singapore Excellence Award 2013.

In 2014, we received the Singapore Quality Brands 2014 award and the Weekender Travellers' Choice Award as No. 1 for Europe and USA tours, as voted by readers. We continued to be awarded for the next three years by Weekender and held our position as the top travel agency in Singapore.

From Tripzillia.sg - Singapore's No.1 Travel Portal – EU Holidays also acquired excellence awards in "Best for Europe 2015" and "Best for USA 2015". The coveted award recognises the most outstanding travel companies for their professionalism and experience in the travel industry.

EU Holidays Pte Ltd has recently received the prestigious Singapore Trusted Quality Brand 2015 award from the Singapore Enrich Group.

In addition, the travel agency has gone through the year-long Customer- Centric Initiative (CCI) program and successfully attained the Singapore Service Class certification under the Ministry of Trade and Industry agency, SPRING Singapore. The agency certifies EU Holidays with the niche Business Excellence (BE) standard for service.

LONDON

The London theatre, the unique street shops and distinctive attractions are reasons why you need to visit this vibrant city.

London – a thriving metropolis that is quite unlike anywhere else in the world. As the largest city in Europe, London is not only one of the oldest and top ranking financial centres in the world, but also the political, economic and cultural capital of the United Kingdom. With history stretching back over thousands of years, London perfectly captures the merging of the modern with historic with their iconic attractions and landmarks, among which include four UNESCO World Heritage sites: the Palace of Westminster and Westminster Abbey, the Maritime Greenwich, the Tower of London and the Victoria and Albert Museum.

Renowned for its vibrant arts and culture scene, London is home to over 170 museums, including 11 national museums, and 857 art galleries, many of which offer free admission. Whatever your interest in art and history, you can be certain you will find a museum that caters to your taste. Looking for something more eclectic? Just head to the streets – we recommend the Leake Street Tunnel in Waterloo – where you will find all sorts of street art and strike up conversations with the artists there. Admirers of theatre, look no further than London's best theatre scene in West End, where you can take your pick from the famous classic plays and musicals or brand new works.

Also named 'the city of fog', London is famous for its unpredictable weather, where rain and fog is common due to the humid weather. Learn from the locals and bring along a pair of sunglasses and umbrella in your bag, so that you can enjoy the city without the weather putting a damper on your plans. Lucerne, A Swiss City Like No Other

LION MONUMENT IN LUCERNE, SWITZERLAND.

Lucerne will charm visitors with its picturesque sceneries, history and culture. Explore this picture perfect storybook city and immerse yourself in a memorable Swiss experience.

Nestled amid snow-capped mountains, a placid lake and lush greenery that stretches as far as the eye can see, Lucerne captures the image of a fairy tale Swiss town. As an ideal starting point for many travellers - the gateway to central Switzerland - the city has attractions that captivate visitors with its modest yet rich offerings of age-old monuments and structures steeped in history.

Old Chapel Bridge

The Old Chapel Bridge plays a crucial role in the city of Lucerne. Connecting the Old Town and a New Town, this structure has been serving its purpose since 1332 - although it was rebuilt after being damaged by a fire. Unlike other bridges, the Old Chapel Bridge exhibits old paintings under its roofs. Interestingly enough, a few burnt panels are still displayed to serve as a reminder of the tragic fire that took place in 1993. During the carnival season, the original pictures will be replaced with the modern ones to reflect the carnival atmosphere. The area also has a Water Tower near the bridge, the former dungeon/archive/treasury vault is now an exclusive club room utilised by traditional associations.

Bucherer

Fancy getting something new for yourself or for the people back home? Then drop by Bucherer, the largest fine jewellery and watch store in Switzerland, to sate all your shopping needs and wants. The Swiss retail chain specialises in luxury Swiss and international brands of watches including Rolex, Omega, Piaget, Patek Philippe, etc. Since its establishment in 1888, the successful family business has expanded throughout the world, bringing the largest collection of Rolex watches to customers with discerning tastes. The retail store takes the form of an impressive five-storey building in Lucerne, Schwanenplatz. Apart from the main headquarters in Lucerne, 14 other stores are situated in places such as Basel, Geneva, Zurich, etc.

Altstadt (Old Town)

Find yourself roaming the streets of Altstadt on a hot afternoon? Why not grab a seat at one of their many street-side cafes and chug down some sumptuous cold, local beer? Housing the longest strip of bars in the world, Altstadt is known for running 260 establishments consisting of: local breweries, lounges, cocktail bars, electro clubs, etc. In addition to brewing tasty beers, this district is noted for its strong arts and cultural scene. The Filmmuseum Düsseldorf encompasses behind the scene processes of making a film, and showcases everything cinema-related. The city is also notable for producing great music under the roofs of places such as the Deutsche Oper am Rhein (Opera House) and the Tonhalle (Concert Hall). Opulent interiors, high ceilings, and spacious layouts invite guests for a night of unforgettable musical entertainment.

Lion Monument

The Lion Monument is one of the most popular attractions in Lucerne. It was erected in the 1880s to honour the valour of mercenary soldiers from Central Switzerland. The monument - of a giant dying lion - commemorates Swiss soldiers who sacrificed their lives while serving the French king Louis XVI during the French Revolution. A Latin inscription is also carved into the sandstone wall, like an incantation, it reads: HELVETIORUM FIDEI AC VIRTUTI, which means "To the loyalty and bravery of the Swiss". Records of the dead, such as their names and death toll, can be found on the memorial. Although the site was once private property, the city of Lucerne bought it, and today the site is accessible without an entrance fee.

Lucerne Lake

Besides its intriguing man-made attractions, Lucerne is also known for being home to the fourth largest lake in Switzerland, Lake Lucerne. Called the heart of Switzerland, this lake is cradled by a four cantons: Lucerne, Uri, Schwyz and Unterwalden. Flanking either sides of the lake, the mountains are covered in thick forests that support a diverse species of wildlife. Besides enjoying the leisurely cruise along the Lucerne Lake, one can also partake in water sports. Wakeboarding, water-skiing, sailing and a number of exciting activities are provided for thrill-seekers.

There is also a 3200-year-old obelisk, called the Luxor Obelisk, which was gifted to the Louis Philippe by the Viceroy of Egypt in 1833. Cinque Terre Discover the rugged beauty of the quaint villages perched on cliffs overlooking the Ligurian sea.

A myriad of colours greet you at your first sight of Cinque Terre, a glorious cluster of villages precariously perched atop rocky cliffs overlooking the Ligurian Sea. Made up of namely five villages – Manarola, Riomaggiore, Corniglia, Vernazza and Monterosso al Mare, and together with the surrounding hillside and coastline, they are all part of the Cinque Terre National Park and listed as a UNESCO World Heritage Site in 1997.

Cinque Terre was carefully built upon terraces on the steep rugged cliffs over centuries, and due to its isolated location, the people's main source of income came from fishing. If you ever wondered about the colourful buildings... well the reason behind that was so that the fishermen working at sea could identify their houses easily and check on their family. Before the advent of tourism in the 19th century which breathed life back into the area, Cinque Terre was actually declining into poverty due to increasing emigration of its people.

This utopian town is undoubtedly the best place to escape from the hurried, fast-paced city life for a few days of quiet and relaxation. Cinque Terre remains a favourite destination for both locals and tourists alike, offering a soothing, laid back atmosphere that remains relatively unmarred by modernization and development. Even with the tourist hike to the area, the locals have chosen to limit vehicular access into Cinque Terre, but the five villages remain well-connected via footpaths, trains and boats. So take a gander along the traffic-free streets, stop by to make conversation with the charming locals or head near the sea for a breath of fresh, salty air – and embrace the lazy way of life.
