INTRODUCTION TO SINGAPORE

A CELEBRATION OF DIVERSITY

To many, Singapore presents itself as a bustling metropolis with a well-developed infrastructure. Over the years, this little red dot has become a must-visit destination for discerning travellers looking to diversify their travel experience.

Explore places such as the National Gallery Singapore, which sits at the refurbished City Hall and former Supreme Court. You can learn more about the dramatic development of Singapore. Discover Singapore's multicultural society by visiting cultural enclaves like Chinatown, Kampong Gelam and Little India, or by participating in events such as the annual Chingay Parade, Singapore Food Festival, etc.

TANTALISE YOUR TASTEBUDS

Feeling famished? Check out the wide selection of cafes and restaurants helmed by Michelin-starred chefs at Marina Bay Sands. Or if you'd like to diversify your palate, let the 24-hour Rasapura Masters food court tempt you with its local and regional favourites.

Alternatively, you can head to Chinatown Food Street, ION Orchard Food Trail, Lau Pa Sat, or Satay by the Bay to sate your appetite for all things sweet and savoury.

REJUVENATE YOUR SENSES

Be charmed by Singapore's own "State of Fun" on Sentosa Island that includes Universal Studios Singapore® and Adventure Cove Waterpark™. If you're travelling with kids, drop by KidZania for an interactive and educational experience. Meet famous celebrities at Madame Tussauds, a world-renowned wax museum, and snap quirky pictures at the TrickEye Museum. Get up close and personal with wild animals at the Singapore Zoo, River Safari, and Night Safari. Discover why Singapore is called a City in a Garden at Gardens by the Bay and at the Singapore Botanic Gardens - a UNESCO World Heritage Site.

A SHOPPER'S DREAM

Indulge yourself at The Shoppes at Marina Bay Sands®. In addition to being one of Singapore's largest luxury shopping malls, it's also known for housing the largest collection of luxury watches and jewellery brands. You could also consider traversing the 2.2km Orchard Road shopping belt, which accommodates more than 20 shopping centres and international brands. If you'd like to get something personal, try Haji Lane, or if you prefer late night shopping, the 24-hour Mustafa Centre is a must-visit.

GETTING AROUND

Public transport in Singapore is affordable and efficient, with buses and the Mass Rapid Transit (MRT) trains running frequently. Although taxis are widely available, simply board the SIA Hop-on Bus to enjoy Singapore's sights on your way to the city's key attractions.
