

Best in show

We know there are a lot of good boys and girls out there who could use a nice treat. Spoil your significant other(s) with a few of these all-Canadian picks

Take a bow

Bowie—looking dapper in blue—and his brother, Wolfie, were both adopted from the Etobicoke Humane Society. Model dogs Cuaderno, Bill and Asher are being fostered by volunteer-run rescue organization Fetch + Release and are looking for their forever homes.

A bow tie in a playful print adds a stylish twist to this collar that's sure to make your feline friend stand out. The breakaway clasp keeps kitty safe no matter what adventures the night brings. Cat collars with bow ties, $12 each, etsy.com/shop/bobosbest.

Tie one on

A bandana in a fun print is an easy way to show off your pet's unique personality. We love the Rover Boutique's colourful selection of boldly patterned fabrics. Bandana, $26, theoverboutique.com.

Toy story

Your cat will go wild for these cute felt toys hand-stitched in Charlottetown and filled with your choice of locally grown catnip or bells. Cat toys, from $5 each, cattustoy.com.
