

CONGRATULATIONS

You did a thing!
And we're so proud of you.

*We raise a glass, or in this case a mug,
in celebration of this wonderful occasion.*

Everyone deserves to be celebrated. That's why UJA is proud to sponsor Selfhelp Community Services' Coffee Houses for Holocaust survivors. These social gatherings are an opportunity for survivors, many homebound and socially isolated, to get dressed up, enjoy a meal, dance to live music, and kibbitz with fellow survivors outside of their homes. We'll toast to that.

Cheers to you for helping to make this possible! Because when you give to UJA, you change lives. So, thank you!

YOU'VE GOT A NEW ADDITION

We. Are. Thrilled!

And we welcome the little matzah ball into the UJA family.

Because we know it's never too early to connect to Jewish moments. That's why we're proud to fund PJ Library, which sends free books that celebrate Jewish values and culture to families with children from birth through 12 years old.

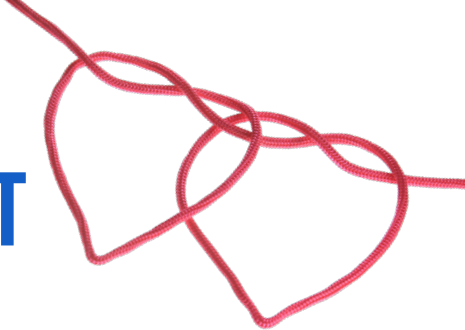

You help make this possible. Because when you give to UJA, you change lives. So, thank you!

We're excited to meet your little one soon enough. After all, you're raising a future UJA Young Leader, right?

P.S. Want to sign up for PJ Library yourself? Check it out at pjlibrary.org.

SO YOU'RE TYING THE KNOT

We. Are. Thrilled!

Here's a luggage tag to use as you embark on new journeys and experiences as a married couple.

Everyone deserves to have meaningful experiences. That's why UJA is proud to fund Honeymoon Israel, which provides immersive trips to Israel for couples with at least one Jewish partner, who are committed to exploring raising Jewish families. You help make this possible. Because when you give to UJA, you change lives. So, thank you!

P.S. Do you know about UJA Young Couples? Enjoy enriching, social, cultural, and philanthropic activities, often with a Jewish spin, and create community among couples in their 20s and 30s. Interested? Contact Maya Levine at levinem@ujafedny.org.

JOY VEY, IT'S YOUR BIRTHDAY

Make a wish!

Did you know that by funding Hebrew Free Loan Society, UJA helps make wishes come true for lower-income New Yorkers? HFLS fosters financial stability and opportunity by providing interest-free loans for borrowers to invest in their education, start a business, meet emergency expenses, and more.

Cheers to you for helping to make this possible. Because when you give to UJA, you change lives. So thank you!

Hope to see you soon.
