

Martinis & Masterpieces

Monday, November 2, 2020 • 5:00 pm

Join us with a delicious martini for the Art of Seduction. Travel back in time as we explore the secrets of the most alluring and dramatic portraits of women at The Metropolitan Museum of Art with award-winning art historian Natasha Schlesinger.

You'll also learn how UJA is addressing the ongoing needs in our community.

SPEAKER

Natasha Schlesinger

Natasha Schlesinger is an award-winning art historian, art advisor, and curator who has worked in the art field for over 25 years. In 2003, Schlesinger founded Artmuse to provide art guidance, curation, and advisory services to private and corporate clients as well as collaborations with brands.

Before the event, we will send you a recipe for a martini to enjoy during this virtual tour.

This event welcomes donors who give a gift of $6,000 or more, individually or as a family, to UJA's 2021 Annual Campaign.

Have questions? Contact Danielle Klein at kleind@ujafedny.org.

Women Deserve Dignity. Period.

Support women and girls in need. Each month, millions of women and girls suffer the indignity of not having adequate menstrual supplies. Our response? The creation of UJA Women's Dignity Project, which has supplied thousands of dignity packages to those who need it most.
