

Andrew Johnson.

<https://arj2127.journoportfolio.com/>

arj2127@columbia.edu

347-755-7474

Introduction.

Multimedia journalist seeking to be a desk assistant or a production assistant.

Experience.

Warehouse Team Member, Amazon (July 2021-August 2022)

Rapidly picked up ordered items from moving shelves and did inventory checks.

Copy Editor, Opal Magazine (August 2018-March 2019)

Helped start-up publication by grammatically correcting pieces and doing fact-checks.

Newsroom Intern & Per-Diem News Producer, WNYC Radio (September 2015-June 2016)

Assisted editors and anchors at leading public radio station by pitching story ideas, selecting and editing audio clips, writing scripts to accompany audio, interviewing newsmakers, writing online articles, making records requests, and logging tape.

Newsroom Intern, The Queens Chronicle (August-December 2013)

Covered local politics and community issues for weekly newspaper.

Education.

M.A., History, Brooklyn College (January 2019-June 2021)

Completed deeply-researched 200-page thesis on the history of the Space Shuttle Challenger and presented that research publicly.

M.S., Journalism, Columbia University (August 2014-May 2015)

Taught the basics of deadline-driven television news, shooting interviews and b-roll, writing scripts, doing one-man band reporting, conducting research, cutting and editing video; commended for writing ability and breadth of knowledge.

B.A., Journalism, York College (August 2010-May 2014)

Learned the fundamentals of journalism and wrote constantly for the school's newspaper, Pandora's Box; received a $1250 reward for my journalistic work.

References.

Julianne Welby, Radio Journalism Professor (917-647-3634)

Lydia Hu, FOX Business Network Correspondent (410-507-3881)

Lennart Bourin, TV News Talent Coach (917-882-5689)

Jen Maxfield, WNBC-TV Reporter/Anchorwoman (917-678-7926)

Joe Khalil, NewsNation Correspondent (248-302-7130)