Dear Perspective Employer,

I'd love to be considered for a freelance writing or reading position for your company. Ever since I was a little girl, I have had a passion for reading and writing. This love for reading and writing has flourished over the years and has led me to organize and participate in many in-person and online book clubs. One of my favorite book clubs was a themed book club where the hostess would provide food that was described in the book.

I am an avid reader who comprehends quickly so I can easily complete multiple books each week. I enjoy many different genres – my favorites being historical fiction, fantasy/sci-fi, and romance. I just completed a Bachelor of Arts degree in English with an Emphasis in Professional Writing, where I learned different types of writing techniques that have helped me to grow my own writing.

In 2021 I read and reviewed over 70 Arcs through NetGalley. You can find those reviews on Goodreads, Storygraph, and my personal blog. Three of those arcs were chosen by a book box company I sent a review to for their monthly book box.

Continuing with my passion for reading, I have participated in The Tucson Festival of Books for multiple years. Currently, I am the Friday Night Event Co-Chair, which is a dinner event that hosts 900 people, including approximately 90 authors. This position requires organization, time management, and creativity.

I am available to speak if you have additional questions or if you would like to meet for an interview. You may reach me at 520-603-3000 or shawnahenderson2@gmail.com. My resume is attached for your review.

Sincerely,

Shawna Henderson
