BRUER pushes boundaries. Excelling in bass-driven, high-energy, melodic feats, he proves himself as quite the jack-of-all-trades. Now, gearing up to release his debut EP Mind Flay, BRUER unveiled 'Nasty,' a heavy-hitting bass boosted display of raw talent. Stream it below now!

'Nasty'

Burgeoning with frenetic bass work, 'Nasty' is BRUER at his artistic best. Featuring heavy 808s and nefarious percussive elements from its onset, 'Nasty' casts a captivating spell on eager listeners. Crunchy bass and wonky harmonies best characterize this prime piece of production prowess. He flexes his hand at neck-breaking, mainstage bass sound. A sonic display of what is yet to come from BRUER, 'Nasty' is a bright treat ahead of his debut EP, Mind Flay, available Thursday, January 28.

From BRUER:

"The Mind Flay EP is a rebirth of my sound and identity as BRUER. I wanted to evolve as an artist and make a statement. I had made a lot of this heavy melodic bass stuff, but I had never done anything quite like this before. This felt new and exciting to me. It felt different. Producing music has always been about having fun, and I felt the need to expand. This is the first chapter to that story." – BRUER.

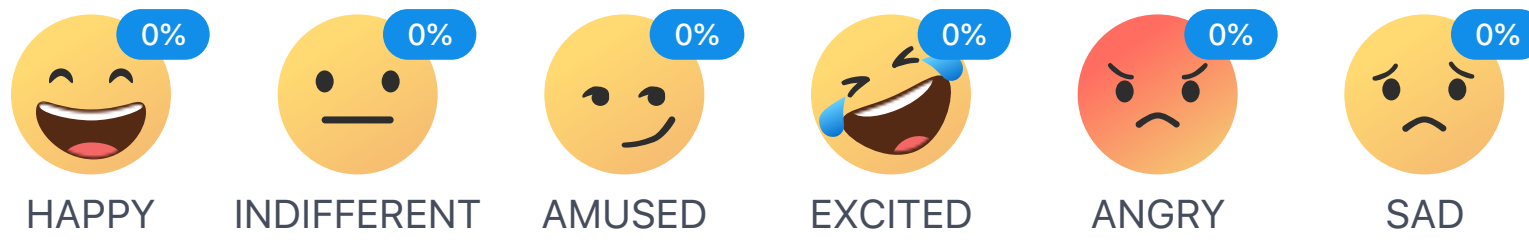

Hailing from the Mile-High City & reckoned as the Bass Capital

Denver-based producer BRUER (aka Will Mayer) sets to take the dance scene by storm with his freeform sound/style. Moving around all over as a young teen, Mayer found himself in LA at the age of 18. BRUER grew up listening to various dance music styles. From happy hardcore to hardstyle to trance, he was held captive by the innovative genres. Evidently resulting in the craving to learn how to create those unique sounds produced by some of his favorite acts. Enrolling at ICON Collective, BRUER would take inspiration from some of his favorite names, both new and old, including the likes of Zeds Dead, NGHTMRE, Slander, Linkin Park, Red Hot Chili Peppers, and more to cultivate his own musical vision.

Combining elements of experimental and future bass, BRUER continues to keep everyone on their toes as he takes inspiration from a variety of genres to make one unique sound, all his own. With each track having an independent feeling but being tied together by his gritty urban style, he continues to set himself apart as a riding producer in the scene. Gearing up for the release of his debut EP in early 2021, this producer has just one goal in mind: travel the world, create music, and entertain whoever wants to listen.
