Get Ready For Bass Canyon 2020

The hype never stops in the world of EDM, especially in the headbanging community. Thanks to our dubstep lord and savor, Jeff Abel Excision, its been another week filled with a whole lot of hoopla. Bass Canyon will be coming back to the Gorge Amphitheater on dates August 28th-30th, and Excision just opened the ticket sales.

But wait...theres more!

Abel surprises fans with a crazy two-for-one and simultaneously drops the festivals lineup. Bass Canyon 2020 will be featuring sets by Eptic, BTSM, Marauda, Phase One, Kai Wachi, Spag Heddy, Subtronics, Kompany, Vampa, Spag Heddy, Ray volpe, and many more producers that bring the heat. It would be wrong to not purchase tickets after releasing a lineup like this. Thank you, Jeff Abel what a double whammy.

This will be Bass Canyon's third annual year returning to the beautiful Gorge Amphitheater. The hype is constant in this community. Last week revealed the news that Bass Canyon will be hosting the epic B2B set from Illenium & Excision. Last year, the two delivered this experience for the first time at Lost Lands. If you were one of the lucky ones at Dubstep Disney Land, you know that the collaboration of these producers just creates something I like to describe as beautiful & filthy. That being said, I can only imagine the amount of rage they will bring to Bass Canyon.

Bass Canyon is perfect for any bass music lover. The diversity in sounds this year is the biggest yet with all sub-genres are covered. Whatever you like: Heavy, gross, deep, wubby, filthy, grimy, and of course neck-breaking bass will be present. This year we get a special drum and bass set from Downlink for all the D&B lovers. Martin Staaf, better known as Liquid Stranger/Wakaan king is coming in with a fat squad: Lsdream, Lucii, Champagne Drip, Luzcid, Esseks, Shlump, AU5, Hydraulix, and Dirt Monkey. To say the least, it will be a long weekend filled with the most unforgettable bone-rattling bass.

More surprises have yet to come

As great as this line up already is, it's just bound to get better. Five artists' names are blurred out and it is making fans go crazy guessing who it could be. There's rumors that it could be Svdden Death, Sullivan King, Midnight T, Nghtmre, and Slander. I guess we will just have to wait and see!

Bass Canyon is adding something special this year too. Excision will be unveiling a brand new stage to the festival! This stage will be featuring creative new sounds and legends from DnB, Melodic, and Free Form Bass Music. Of course the main stage with headlining artists will shake your body down to the core packing 500K watts of PK sound, hundreds of lights, more lasers than ever before, and insane visuals.

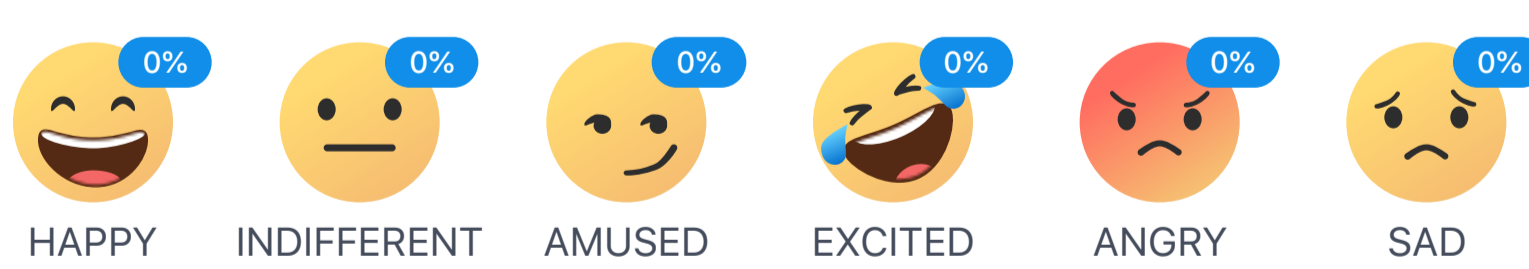

Tickets are going quickly!

Tickets, Camping, and Payment Plans are available now. Check out the website here for prices and more information. Better hurry up and lock in your spot though. VIP admission already sold out. Luckily there's still GA admission available for just $199.

P.S, Don't forget to purchase the Thursday Pre-party! Get ready for surprise B2Bs from your favorite artists before the main stage action begins.
