Jesse Kardon, familiarly known as Subtronics just released his EP "Scream Saver" and its nothing short but absolute fire. It's reached over 125k Soundcloud plays in about one day, and Spotify counts are just through the roof. This is basically Christmas for The Cyclops Army.

Subtronics Is At It Again

Subtronics has a special sound design of his own. When that unique nasty-wonky-gritty riddim comes on, you know It's him. "The Scream Saver" EP delivers four face-melting bangers. It will have your eardrums happily vibrating and mind straight blown. The fact that he has released three killer EPs in just one year IS INSANE. "Wooked On Tronics" and "Cyclops Army" are also pure gold. Bravo Jesse, keep it coming.

Scream Saver EP Released

The EP starts out with the track 'Scream Saver'. A couple of months ago Jesse tweeted a video of himself playing the track during a stop on his Cyclops Invasion Tour, and that's when fans went nutty over it. After hearing the vocals "You're already dead" followed by the most intense rattling bass it just sends chills throughout your body. The next track "Lullaby" is a collaboration with Disciple's British duo, Jay & Nik popularly known as Virus Syndicate. Needless to say, it was a much-needed collaboration, the boys murdered this one.

The third track 'Diskotek' it incorporates riddim producer Akeos. The flow of this one is just incredible. Literally "Its actually really cool". Along with Jesse's unique sound, another thing that makes his music stand out are his pre-drop vocals. There's nothing better than his sickening bass preceded by the aggressive vocal samples. "Ooh, this shit be hittin' different" from Griztronics still has fans go nuts. The fourth and final track of the EP is 'Blow Stuff Up'. Jesse also includes samples of NPC Tiny Tina from the game Borderlands 3 "Yo Yo Yo Yo, Lets Blow Stuff Up!" will not be getting old any time soon. Overall "Scream Saver" EP, is one for the books.
