

Mikael Roussel

A dedicated self-starter, Mikael Roussel brings a wealth of global resources to his interactions with his real estate customers. He previously worked in various industries all around the world, gaining exposure to marketing, sales, and research in the technology, financial services, recruiting, and fitness industries, just to name a few. These worldly experiences have provided Mikael with a unique skill set, knowledge, and global network to connect buyers and sellers for smooth and successful transactions.

As a real estate professional, Mikael is committed to connecting extraordinary people with exceptional places while providing the best service possible. His fluency in French and Spanish is an asset in his exchanges with international customers, and his ability to easily build relationships with people of all cultures sets Mikael apart as a REALTOR®. A sales associate with the Vanderbilt office of Premier Sotheby's International Realty, Mikael has joined his fiancée, Lauren Schrim, and her mother, Donna Schrim, to form The Schrim Team.

Raised in Brussels, Belgium, and New York City, Mikael now calls Naples home. He graduated from American University in Washington, D.C., earning a Bachelor of Arts in international relations, and went on to study at the Thunderbird School of Global Management at Arizona State University, graduating with a Master of Science degree. In his free time, Mikael enjoys traveling with his fiancée, playing golf and tennis, skiing, swimming, and scuba diving. He'll never pass up watching a good movie and loves to read history and other non-fiction books.
