Soak Up the Calm in Style on Chevron Island

The Property

Escape to an apartment on Chevron Island that's both secluded and connected. The island is uniquely found between the suburbs of Surfers Paradise and Bundall but separated by the waters of the Nerang River, granting easy access to a huge variety of entertainment and dining options, with shops, cafes, and award winning restaurants and bars. You'll have everything needed for an uninterrupted stay, including a large balcony, an equipped kitchen, a shared outdoor swimming pool and a parking spot.

The Space:

Experience Gold Coast bliss during your stay in a recently renovated one-bedroom apartment. The living space is naturally lit and thoughtfully decorated with colourful blue and grey hues, with a modern and sleek sofa that sits facing a coffee table and a mounted flat screen TV.

From the living area, walk out to a large and decorated balcony which offers seating for two and enjoy a glass of wine or a cup of coffee as you take in views of the surrounding neighbourhood.

Staying in? Whip up a delicious meal in the fully-equipped kitchen which offers a freezer, stove, microwave, oven, fridge, an espresso machine and a dishwasher for easy clean up. Then enjoy dinner on the kitchen counter which seats two.

Then retreat for some shut eye to the master bedroom boasting a plush double bed dressed in quality linen, with access to the balcony on one side, and the bathroom from the other.

The apartment's pristine bathroom comes complete with a shower, toilet, vanity, complimentary toiletries and the additional luxury of in-unit laundry with a washing machine and dryer for extended stays.

Make yourself at home and take advantage of the building's amenities including air conditioning, Wi-Fi and a shared communal pool that's perfect for taking refreshing dips in the sun.

The Neighbourhood Overview:

Go for a morning stroll with stunning walking paths at Chevron Island Park, only 6 mins away or head to the world famous Gold Coast beaches nearby, including Budds beach a 20-minute stroll away.

HOTA Green Bridge is within walking distance, with direct pedestrian access to the Nerang River through to Surfers Paradise, where you can visit multiple attractions like the beach side night markets and the SkyPoint Observation Deck.

Craving some pizza? Visit Arlo's Pizzeria for a scrumptious cheesy dinner, or if you're a fan of Asian, you'll love FMOK restaurant, which combines Asian and European flavours to create a unique and adventurous dining experience — also a 5-minute walk away. Those who adore Persian cuisine won't be disappointed by Shiraz Persian Restaurant with its delicious dishes served in a cosy space with a unique ambience.
