Header: Land a lucrative tech job in months, not years

Hi NAME,

(Name) wanted to transition into tech, but thought it was impossible since she didn't have time to go back to school for a 4-year computer science degree. And we know she's not alone.

Many professionals like you want to launch a lucrative tech career, but concerns about the cost and time to get a degree keep you stuck.

Here's a secret: you don't actually need a CS degree to get a job in tech. You don't need a degree at all.

All you need is a strong portfolio and coding skills to stand out to employers. And that means you can land a high-paying tech job in months, not years.

At (Company's Coding Camp), we provide 1:1 mentorship and training to get the technical chops you need to land a lucrative, flexible career in tech.

Here's what (Name) had to say after landing her first tech job (in just 6 months of starting the camp!)

--Testimonial--

Are you ready to land your dream job in tech? To find work that fits your life (not the other way around)?

Our team will help you get there, just like (Name).
