During the holidays, it can be challenging to find a practical gift for a self-proclaimed minimalist! Despite striving for simplicity, you can still surprise them by giving experiences or ephemeral gifts. From yoga classes to late-night nibble boxes, there is something unique for every minimalist on our list!

These gift ideas are a part of our Shop Local Series! To show our own love and support for small businesses, we encourage the community to shop local this holiday season. You will find unique gifts for everyone on your list and leave a lasting impact on the boutiques, shops, and businesses that are found in our wonderful community. Go Valley Kids is not compensated by local businesses on this list, we are providing the ideas as gifting inspiration!

JENNIFER MUCH

Jennifer is a wife, mom of two and avid traveler who is on a mission to discover her next big adventure. Raised in the Fox Cities, she enjoys writing and exploring new places, especially with her husband, daughter and son in tow. She seeks to find inspiration among all the little things in life and insists there is no better way to stir up creativity than with a loud thunderstorm and giant glass of chocolate milk. When gifted free time, she enjoys being with her family, crocheting, watching documentaries and camping.
