

Madison Pollock

Journalist and Editor

Madison Pollock

Orlando, 32817

(210) 389-7727

mpollocknov1999@gmail.com

Proficient in Journalism, Investigative Reporting, Editing, AP Style, Creative Thinking Skills, Advanced Communication Skills, and Multitasking.

Orlando Sentinel / Reporter

Current, ORLANDO

I'm exercising the importance of mobile journalism through investigative reporting. Not only do I cover a story in a written format but am also expected to create and edit compelling news videos. While putting my AP style skills into practice.

NSM Today / Reporter

August 2021 - December 2021, ORLANDO

I was expected to research and analyze topics that surrounded my beat. I also had to have advanced communication skills in order to conduct informative and professional interviews. From there the information would be edited and then pushed into copy under AP style guidelines.

Childhood Cancer Foundation / Volunteer

August 2016 - October 2018, DELAND

Here I was able to help coordinate charity events. This would include manual labor and assisting in advertising. Organizational skills were required in order to keep track of donations. I had participated in galas, food drives, and rebuilding Earl Brown Park.

Habitat for Humanity / Volunteer

August 2016 - October 2016, DELAND

I helped organize and keep track of purchases within the store, while recording item inventory. I would also assist with moving furniture into new built homes.

University of Central Florida / Bachelor's Degree in Journalism, Minor in Psychology

August 2020 - Currently Enrolled

Developed the necessary skills such as advanced reporting, editing, multi-media law, online journalism and advanced communication skills.

Daytona State College/ Associate's of Arts

Aug 2016 - May 2019

Developed a strong foundation of general education courses in reading, writing, communication, critical thinking, humanities, and social science.

Magna cum laude and Dean's List.

Skills

Experience

Education

Awards