CHILDREN'S PUBLISHING CONTENT SPECIALIST!

For more than two decades, I have had the privilege of creating educational content across a wide range of publishing environments.

I bring the perspective of an educator, the discipline of an editor, the imagination of a children's author, and the collaborative spirit of a reader who believes everyone deserves access to quality books.

My work has included:

Curriculum Development:
Designing lesson plans, teacher guides, unit overviews, scope and sequence plans, and classroom activities aligned with state or national standards

Fiction Writing:
Writing picture books, leveled and beginning readers, series character development, read aloud collections

Educational Nonfiction:
Writing engaging, age-appropriate nonfiction books for the school and library market

Assessment Creation:
Writing test questions, quizzes, and standardized exam materials.

Copyediting & Proofreading:
Reviewing manuscripts for grammatical consistency, tone, and formatting to ensure they are error-free before publication.
