

Wooden FENCES

George Nash

Photographs by James P. Blair

$29.95 U.S.

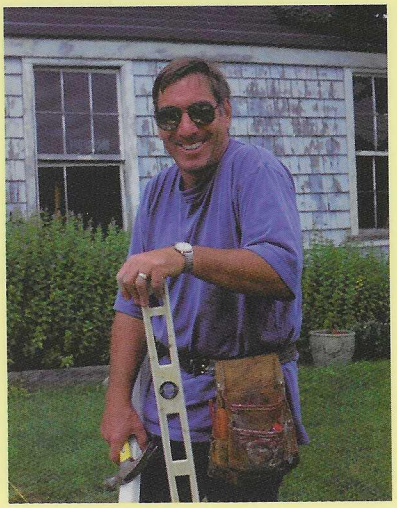

Wooden FENCES

Wooden fences are a prominent and beautiful feature of the American landscape. This inspiring, lavishly illustrated book takes you on a tour of some of the most picturesque examples. George Nash is your guide, relating the history of fences and how they are built.

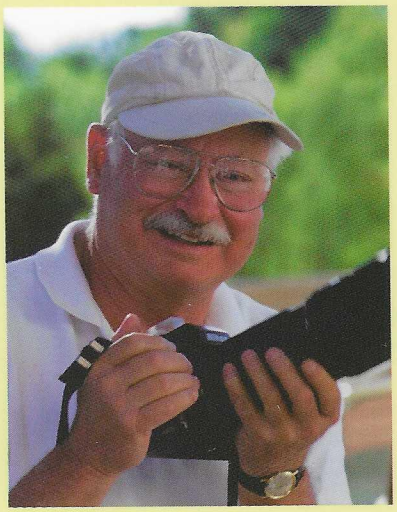

An experienced carpenter and talented writer, Nash traces the evolution of the American wooden fence from Colonial times to the present. He discusses the various types of fences, and explains how to design a fence to meet every conceivable need—including how to be a good neighbor.

Everything you need to know to build a fence is here, from laying out the fence to digging postholes, anchoring the posts, and installing gates and fence boards. There's even a trouble-shooting guide for maintenance and repair.

Whether you're a do-it-yourselfer or a fence-building pro, you'll find the inspiration and information you need right here.

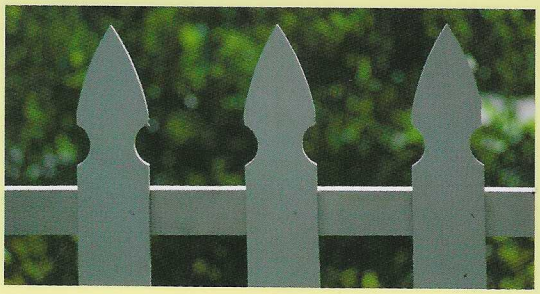

About the author
George Nash is the author of the critically acclaimed Renovating Old Houses (also published by The Taunton Press). He is a renovation contractor and fence-building enthusiast.

About the photographer
James P. Blair worked for National Geographic magazine for over 30 years. He has received many awards for photographic reporting.

Wooden FENCES

- The Evolution of the American Fence
- Wooden Fence Types
- Design Factors
- Fence Materials
- Planning & Layout
- Building a Fence
- Gates
- Maintenance & Repair

Who can resist the allure of a white picket fence? In this visually stunning guide, George Nash celebrates the art of the wooden fence in its full range of styles, with practical information on designing, building, and maintaining a fence. Color photographs by veteran National Geographic photographer James P. Blair make this book as beautiful as it is informative.

Taunton
BOOKS & VIDEOS
for fellow enthusiasts

ISBN 1-56158-151-8
EAN 9 781561 581511 90000 >

Taunton Product # 070280