Erie Bank donates $15,000 to HOLA Ohio

Posted by: Izzy Keller

SEVEN HILLS, Ohio — HOLA Ohio is thrilled to have accepted a generous donation from ErieBank, a Pennsylvania-based, independent bank.

On Feb. 10 at ErieBank's Seven Hills location, HOLA Ohio Executive Director Veronica Dahlberg and Program Manager Kelsey Fischer accepted a $15,000 check from ErieBank Regional President Wesley Gillespie, Community Responsibility Officer Kevin Dixon and Community Responsibility Officer Eradin Barro.

ErieBank has been a great support to HOLA Ohio and the Latino community. The $15,000 donation is going towards the development of HOLA's brand new Hispanic Community Center and Commercial Kitchen Incubator located in Painesville.

HOLA's Hispanic Community Center and Commercial Kitchen Incubator is a $2 million project that is set to open in Spring 2022. The center allows HOLA Ohio to expand services offered to men, women, workers and children across Ohio.

ErieBank is one of HOLA's community partners that have donated to support the Hispanic Community Center. Many of the donations, though, have come from ordinary people around Ohio and the United States.

To support the building of the community center and the empowerment and development of Latino communities across Ohio by providing free legal consultation, DACA support, voter registration, citizenship workshops, and more donate to HOLA Ohio at <http://holatoday.org/donate/>.

HOLA Ohio is, also, always looking for new volunteers. To find out more about volunteering or to become a volunteer, reach out to info@holaohio.org.

For more information about the donation, contact HOLA Executive Director Veronica Dahlberg at veronia@holaohio.org or by calling (440) 812-4626.

HOLA Ohio is an award-winning, Painesville-based 501c3 nonprofit that provides a variety of resources to empower and assist Latino communities throughout northern Ohio. HOLA has two locations, a main office in Painesville, Ohio and a satellite office in Norwalk. HOLA is a UnidosUS Affiliate.
