Refined living, inspired by the mountains

A MOUNTAIN OF HISTORY

Tucked into a box canyon at 8,750 feet, Telluride's mining roots live on through its free spirit and timeless character. This intimate alpine town blends laid-back warmth with a distinctly cosmopolitan edge.

THE GREAT OUTDOORS YEAR-ROUND

Every season beckons with adventure. Winter unveils 2,000 skiable acres and 150 pristine runs, while summer offers a whirlwind of festivals, world-class golf, hiking, ziplining, markets, and more.

LIVING IN FLOW WITH NATURE

Designed by Olson Kundig and Clements Design, floor-to-ceiling windows fill interiors with sunlight and frame alpine vistas. Connected by green spaces, the three buildings unite indoor and outdoor living.

WELLNESS IN EVERY BREATH

With oxygenation offered throughout our rooms and residences, each breath feels more revitalizing—designed to ease altitude adjustment and enhance overall well-being.
