OUTFIT YOUR ADVENTURE

HISTORY IN THE MAKING

Maholi Canada was born in 1994 to create bedding worthy of royalty for everyday life. Thanks to that passion, our linens are in oases around the world, serving up luxurious slumber. What we're saying is comfort is in our DNA.

That feeling when you snuggle into bed? We want you to experience that goodness all day. So, with comfort at the core, we add utility and creativity to craft apparel to outfit your wanderlust.

As stunning as it is functional, Maholi Apparel outerwear moves as beautifully as it looks on you, and that's a feat. Ready to span seasons, adventures, and the globe, every detail is made for a life lived to the fullest.

With every piece made in Canada to quality standards of the highest order, we live by a code of sustainability and ethics, because what we all leave behind matters.

Citizens of the world, take the leap, create the adventure, boldly go.

Live the story only you can tell.
