Dear Mrs. Gallant:

I have known Eric Esayenko for 5 years, having taught him Math and Computers in his Grade 7-9 years. He's always been conscientious about his work, completing it accurately and on time. He's shown interest in his school work, coming in with friends for helps and tips in math. He has been active on several sports teams at school and has consistently demonstrated that he is a team player. Eric has strong relationships with his peers, often looking out for their best interest, and he has a kind and approachable demeanor, making new students feel comfortable in his presence.

In sum, Eric is a friendly individual with strong work ethic, who sees the big picture over his own self-interest. He would be a great addition and asset to wherever he goes and I wish him the best in all his future endeavours.

Sincerely,

Jonathan Wong
